WFO 100-50900

For Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), advised a Special Agent of the FBI on June 14, 1971, that KARL HESS resides at 1731 S Street, N.W., WDC. 4

HESS currently resides in Apartment 3, 1731 S Street, N.W., WDC. 4

(Personal observation by a Special Agent of the FBI, June 17, 1971)

Former - HESS reportedly resided at 1777 Lanier Place, N.W., WDC, as of February 2, 1971; 1717 Lanier Place, N.W., WDC, as of December 29, 1970; and 1829 Mintwood Place, N.W., WDC, as of November 26, 1970. u

b6
b7C

A source reported that HESS discontinued residence aboard the boat "Tranquil" at the Buzzard Point Marina, S.W., WDC, about November, 1970. 4

(WF T-1, November 20, 1970)

B. Employment

HESS is currently employed by the Institute For Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., WDC, according to information furnished to a Special Agent of the FBI by an unidentified female at the IPS on June 14, 1971. u

Re IPS:

According to an article appearing in the September 4

24, 1967, issue of the "Examiner," a WDC newspaper published weekly, EDITH KERMIT ROOSEVELT describes the IPS as a Washington based "Think Factory," which helped train extremists who incite violence in U. S. cities, and whose educational research serves as a cover for intrigue and political agitation. Through its conferences and seminars, the IPS exerts a continuing influence on the ideology and tactics of the New Left. 4

C. Education

HESS is reported to have quit school at fifteen years of age. 4

(Article entitled "KARL HESS is aflame with the idea that a man can run his own life," by TONY LANG, "Potomac" magazine, "The Washington Post" newspaper, December 6, 1970)

D. Arrest Record

HESS has been assigned FBI Number 642 496 H and Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), WDC, Number 240433. 4

(Records, FBI Identification Division, January 15, 1971)

A review of the files of the MPD on June 23, 1971, by a representative of the FBI determined that KARL HESS, MPD Number 240433, was arrested December 29, 1970, on the charge of "Congregating within 500 feet of an Embassy, failure to move on." No disposition on this charge was noted. 4

II. ACTIVITIES

A. Jews For Urban Justice

KARL HESS was listed as a speaker on the topic "The Police State, 1933-1970," at a new coffeehouse, 2821 27th 4

Street, N.W., WDC, on December 28, 1970, sponsored by Jews For Urban Justice (JUU) in a flyer entitled "The Jewish Urban Underground." 4

(WF T-2, November 17, 1970)

The JUU is self-described as a group of Washington-area people who are actively involved in a struggle and resistance against a society which it now considers oppressive and unjust; in attempting to create a community of people who can work, live and struggle together; in attempting to talk with other Jews who have been turned-off to their heritage by an assimilationist American-Jewish community, through workshops, speaking engagements and political actions. 4

The "Washington Post" newspaper, page A-12, dated December 30, 1970, contained an article entitled "3000 Stage Candlelit March for Jews," which noted that the march past the White House on December 29, 1970, sponsored by the Jewish Community Council of Greater Washington, was in protest of the treatment of Jews in the Soviet Union. The article further reported that KARL HESS, former speech writer for Senator BARRY GOLDWATER, was one of fourteen persons, claiming to be members of the JUU, arrested about 8:30 p.m. on December 29, 1970, when they tried to hold a religious service across the street from the Soviet Embassy, 1125 16th Street, N.W., WDC. 4

B. Institute For Policy Studies (IPS)

The February 22, 1971, edition of the Manchester, New Hampshire, "Union Leader," contains an article entitled, "Brainwashing" The State Dept., which noted that the State Department's Foreign Service Institute had arranged for strategists of the IPS to lecture State Department personnel on subjects ranging from "the American Anarchist Tradition" to "the International Outlook of the New Left." The article related that the first of these "brain washing" sessions took place the previous week as part of a Foreign Service Institute seminar on "The New Left - An international Overview," and identified KARL HESS, one time speech writer for Senator GOLDWATER. 4 and now an advocate of doing away with all government, as a scheduled speaker representing the IPS. 4

A source advised that HESS was scheduled to speak on April 2, 1971, at a two-day conference at Austin College, Sherman, Texas. HESS' speech, "From Establishment to Anarchy - Why?" was the first scheduled on an agenda captioned "A Conference on a New Politics for the Seventies." 4

(WF T-3, April 1, 1971)

HESS spoke about one hour at the Student Union Building, Austin College, Sherman, Texas, on the evening of April 2, 1971, and was followed on the program by DONALD LUTZ, a University of Houston Political Science professor, who devoted much of his speech to rebutting that furnished by HESS. HESS' speech dealt mainly with the need to decentralize the Government of the United States and that it was his belief the Government should be run at the local level. HESS spoke of getting rid of all the politicians, claiming they do not know how to do anything. HESS commented that if President NIXON was residing at Howe, Texas, he would starve to death, since, like all politicians, he could not make a living, except for his being in politics. He mentioned the recent election of a number of liberal candidates to the City Council at Berkeley, California, pointing out that the students and young people got out and worked for their election, and that this was a portent of things to come. HESS described the war in Vietnam as an imperialistic war and recommended that the United States should withdraw all troops. 4

Following the speeches by HESS and LUTZ, attended by approximately 180 to 185 persons, the program was open to a question and answer period. 4

(WF T-4, April 5, 1971)

HESS was scheduled to participate in a discussion, "Anarchism versus Marxism," at IPS on June 20, 1971. 4

(WF T-5, June 17, 1971)

C. National Taxpayers Union

According to a brochure entitled "National Taxpayers Union," with accompanying letter soliciting subscriptions to the organization's monthly newspaper, "Dollars and Sense," KARL HESS, III is listed as a member of the Board of Advisors of the National Taxpayers Union (NTU). The brochure notes that HESS will be a contributor to the monthly newspaper and quotes him as saying, "People keep talking about 'peaceful revolutions' - the only way of actually accomplishing peaceful change may be through tax resistance." U

(WF T-6, April 22, 1971)

The NTU is self-described as a voluntary association of American taxpayers dedicated to fighting excessive taxation and the oppressive growth of bureaucratic government. It states a belief that individual Americans should once again control their own lives, property and money; a dedication to exposing the true nature of fraud and waste in government; and claims to be the national unifying force for American taxpayers who want action - where it counts - in Congress and the local level. The NTU lists a mailing address at 415 2nd Street, N.E., WDC, 20002. U

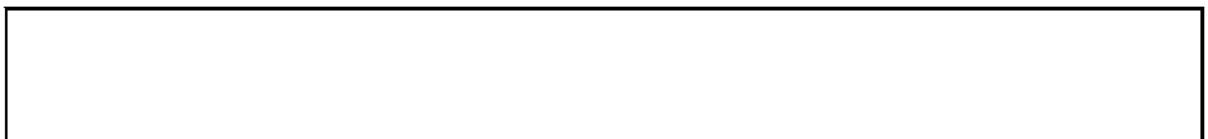

D. Peoples Peace Treaty

A source advised that HESS was listed as an endorser of the Peoples Peace Treaty (PPT). U

(WF T-7, May 13, 1971)

Literature put out by PPT describes it as a peace treaty negotiated in late 1970 by the students of the United States with the students of Vietnam. U

E. Black Panther Party

(WF T-8, September 22, 1970)

[REDACTED]

(WF T-8, November 24, 1970)

The BPP is characterized in the appendix. 4

III. MISCELLANEOUS

The "Washington Post" newspaper, pages B-1 and B-6, dated March 29, 1971, contained a book review by KARL HESS on "The Perfectibility of Man," by JOHN PASSMORE, which presented a favorable review of the publication. 4

A source described HESS as an intelligent individual, very radical in his thinking, and a believer in the aims of the Weatherman faction of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and the Black Panther Party (BPP). The source commented that HESS talks a great deal about revolution and is in favor of violence should it become necessary to overthrow the "State." The source remarked that HESS is a lot of "talk," but opined that, should the right opportunity present itself, HESS would participate in violent activities such as bombings. The source

The SDS and Weatherman are characterized in the appendix. 4

The article entitled "KARL HESS is aflame with the idea that a man can run his own life," by TONY LANG, which appeared in the "Potomac" magazine section of "The Washington Post" newspaper, dated December 6, 1970, provides biographical data concerning KARL HESS in addition to tracing his transformation in political philosophy from right-wing advocate to New Left activist. 4

Between January 29, 1971, and March 3, 1971, a spokesman for the MPD, WDC, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that during the evening of February 6, 1971, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was overheard to say at that time that he had a message network established in the United States that would allow him to contact various individuals in Paris and North Vietnam. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] described two of the contacts in the United States as being [REDACTED] and KARL HESS, III, a researcher at IPS. 4

On May 1, 1971, Special Agents of the FBI viewed the Arnold Zenker Program, WJZ-TV, Baltimore, Maryland, which began at 10:30 p.m. and concluded at 11:00 p.m. Appearing on the program were ABBOTT H. HOFFMANN, a member of the "Chicago Seven," and his wife, ANITA HOFFMANN, who were interviewed by the program's host, ARNOLD ZENKER. 4

During the course of the program, ZENKER stated HOFFMANN's new book, "Steal This Book," contains various ways to steal from, or "rip off" food and clothing stores and the telephone company. Following this statement, a filmed interview between two individuals, identified on the film as ARTHUR WASKOW of the IPS and KARL HESS, Philosopher, were shown in a discussion as to whether ABBOTT HOFFMANN's revolution is for the "hell of it," or has serious implications. 4

These two individuals stated HOFFMANN is saying the telephone company is "ripping you off," and the question is what kind of system will keep this from occurring. They stated we must determine why there is a ghetto of non-workers on campuses and semi-campus neighborhoods and how they can be united with the rest of society which works too hard. 4

For your information, elsur checks were previously made on [redacted] covering the period prior to [redacted] and, therefore, these need only be brought up to the [redacted] date set by the Department in its memorandum. Regarding the remaining names listed, you may find that some of the individuals were overheard on dates either prior to or after [redacted] with IPS. In these instances, it will not be necessary, at this time, to furnish such information to FBIHQ. Respond to the Department's request only where the overhearings occurred during the periods of [redacted]. In this regard, you will note that certain individuals on the list show [redacted] and it will not be necessary to furnish information concerning overhearings of these individuals at this time. Upon receipt of the periods of [redacted] you will be further advised. (U)

(u)

Concerning [redacted] this was a telephonic electronic installation which was instituted on telephone number 626-6616 subscribed by "People's World" Headquarters Room 916, 424 South Broadway, Los Angeles, California. This installation was authorized by Headquarters by airtel dated 5/1/63, captioned "People's World' IS - C; IS - ACT OF 1950". On 4/1/66, the Headquarters of "People's World" changed address from Room 916, 424 South Broadway, Los Angeles, California, to the Financial Center Building, 704 South Spring Street, Los Angeles, California, and as a result [redacted] was discontinued on 3/28/66, and a new symbol number, [redacted] was assigned to this installation. [redacted] was activated on 3/31/66, and continued operation until the weekend of 4/23-24/66, when at that time the People's World Headquarters moved from the 6th floor to the 2nd floor of the Financial Center Building, occupying Rooms 216, 217 and 218. As a result of this move a new installation was initiated which was designated as [redacted]. By teletype dated 11/29/66, the Los Angeles Division was instructed by Headquarters to immediately discontinue this installation which was accomplished on 11/29/66.

not an overhear - only to mention

Regarding [redacted] this was a Misur which was authorized by the Bureau in airtel dated 6/19/61, captioned [redacted] aka. AR". This Misur was installed at the office of [redacted] Beverly Hills, California. The Misur was activated on 5/5/61, and discontinued on 11/20/61 through 11/30/61, because of an administrative procedure of the telephone company. The Misur was ultimately discontinued on 8/28/62. RE: INSTITUTE FOR POLICY STUDIES (IPS)

The following is being furnished in response to your reference number [redacted]

b7D

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) initiated active investigation of the IPS in June, 1968, upon receipt of information from a source in New York, New York, who has furnished reliable information in the past, that an official of the IPS was in contact with a leader of the New York Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) Regional Office in May, 1968, regarding a three-day meeting to be held in New York City. The SDS official referred to is [REDACTED]

b6

in the Weather Underground Organization (WUO) which is made up of members of the now defunct Weatherman faction of SDS. (See appendix.)

The FBI's investigative interest in this matter was to determine if the activities of the IPS were in violation of Federal law.

In September, 1967, the Washington, D. C., "Examiner" newspaper characterized the IPS as a "Washington-based 'think factory' (which) helped train Stokely Carmichael and other extremists who incited violence in American cities." (See appendix.) IPS is self-described as a nonprofit, nontaxable, independent center for research, education and social invention on public policy problems.

In February, 1974, the FBI terminated its investigation of IPS after concluding there was no current evidence of IPS being in violation of any Federal statute or being engaged in activities that could be in violation of Federal statute. The IPS is not under investigation by the FBI at this time. (u)

In February, 1974, individuals associated with IPS filed a civil action in United States District Court, District of Columbia, charging John N. Mitchell, then Attorney General of the United States and others, including the FBI, with violating the civil rights of the IPS and its members by committing certain alleged illegal acts. This matter is still in litigation. (u)

The records of the FBI at Washington, D. C., contain the following information most likely identifiable with individuals mentioned in your memorandum of May 10, 1976: u

Saul Landau. Landau, a white male, United States citizen, date of birth January 15, 1936, at New York, New York, in 1973, was a self-employed author and photographer-director of Lobo Films, 214 Hoffman Avenue, San Francisco, California. In 1973, Landau held United States Passport #B-2383766. Landau travelled to Cuba in February and March, 1972, and produced a 97 minute pro-Cuban film entitled "Fidel," which concerned the Cuban Revolution. In late 1972, Landau was in contact with an official of IPS, Washington, D. C., regarding the producing of an anti-Vietnam War movie. (c)

"The Washington Post" newspaper, in its January 5, 1973 issue, section B-1, has an article on the movie "Que Hacer," which the article points out is a feature length film made in Chile by Saul Landau, a leftist producer-director-documentarian. Cofeatured with "Que Hacer" at a local theater in Washington, D. C. is a half-hour interview with Chilean President Salvador Allende conducted by Landau (u) in January, 1971.

U.S. LABOR PARTY

Rockefeller Plans a Nuclear Terror Attack on Your Town by the Fourth of July

There is a conspiracy underway organized by the Rockefeller family and the National Security Council which they control through Henry Kissinger to assassinate President Ford and to unleash a wave of blood terrorism culminating in nuclear terrorism by the Fourth of July.

The only way to stop this from happening is by dismantling Rockefeller's international terrorist apparatus. The following information provides the general background material which Congress, honest police officials and other federal and local government agencies must immediately act upon.

Terrorism Comes From The Rockefeller-Controlled NSC

The spawning ground for virtually every terrorist organization in the United States is the Institute for Policy Studies in Washington D.C. and its subdivision in the Cambridge Institute in Massachusetts, both of which were set up as a National Security Council covert operation by McGeorge Bundy and Henry Kissinger. The head of the Institute is Marcus Raskin, a former Special Staff member of the National Security Council whose duties included monitoring of CIA covert operations and nuclear planning. The other two heads of the Institute are Richard Barnett and Arthur Waskow, both of whom have served on the National Security Council.

The major funders of the Institute, aside from laundered NSC funds, are the Rockefeller Foundation, the Rockefeller Family Fund, Emily and Abby Rockefeller (daughters of David Rockefeller), Philip Stern of the Rosenwald family which is an offshoot of the Rockefeller allied Rothschild family, and David Rockefeller, who directly funds the Institute's major publications.

The following terrorist groups have been trained, educated and created at the Institute:

- The Weathermen - Almost every top Weatherman received his education at the Institute. William Ayres (Weatherman Central Committee), Bernardine Dohrn (Weatherman Central Committee), Bo Burlingham (ex-Weatherman Central Committee, presently on the Board of Directors of the Institute), Eric Mann (Weatherman Central Committee), Andrew Kopson (notorious propagandist for the Weathermen and presently on the Board of Directors of the Institute).

The bail money which sprang the Weathermen out of Chicago's jails after their "Days of Rage" was posted by Arthur Waskow, presently on the Board of Trustees and Fellow of the Institute.

- The Black Liberation Army (BLA) - This group of brainwashed assassins was created out of the Lincoln Detox brainwashing center in New York City. Lincoln Detox was created out of an Institute project called "Think Lincoln" which was headed up by Lee Webb, a founder of Students for a Democratic Society, and Robb Burlage who is presently on the Board of Trustees and Fellow of the Institute.

- Peoples Bicentennial Commission (PBC) - This commission - which is now organizing for riots, flag desecrations and according to several police sources, an assassination of President Ford on the Fourth of July - was created by the Institute and is directed by Institute personnel. The commission is headed by Philip Stern, Chairman of the Board of Trustees for the Institute and former Deputy Undersecretary of State. The two chairmen of the PBC, John Rossen and Jeremy Rifkin, are products of the Institute. Also involved as chairman of the so-called "Tea Party" is Ed Schwartz. Ed Schwartz is an ex-CIA agent (exposed in the national press as a CIA operative in the National Students Association) who has worked at the Institute's subdivision, the Cambridge Institute, on numerous brainwashing projects.

- Deserter Movement - The entire movement was organized as an NSC project for the creation of drug zombie terror networks through the Institute. Bo Burlingham was former coordinator of deserters' networks in Western Europe. Noam Chomsky, also on Cambridge Institute's Board of Directors and an employee of the Rand Corporation, was the head of the U.S. deserter movement.

Other groups created there were the Revolutionary Union, Revolutionary Student Brigades, the Liberation News Service, which serves hundreds of pornographic terrorist rags around the country, numerous zombie cults - all under the control of Rockefeller's National Security Council and its commandant Henry Kissinger.

Nuclear Terrorism Is A Live NSC Operation

Between now and the Fourth of July this apparatus has been activated to create the environment for a nuclear terrorist attack. Rockefeller is desperate. His bankrupt family plans to make a political comeback through a nuclear show of force which will allow his NSC machine to impose emergency dictatorial fascist government and from there proceed to a nuclear show of force with the Soviet Union.

The operation being run live by the NSC through its countergang apparatus is the Rand Corporation's scenario, "High Technology Terrorism and Surrogate War." A nuclear bomb is to be exploded in some city of the United States or Western Europe - perhaps by a member of the CIA-run Communist Party USA - and then blamed on the Soviet Union, which will unleash a chain of pre-programmed Pearl Harbor war moves including a dictatorship. The scenario reads:

People tend to be frightened by the mere mention of the word atomic. To create an atmosphere of alarm, the terrorists using any sort of nuclear blackmail would have much of their mission accomplished. Even if the terrorists ultimately fail to carry out the threatened deed, the publicity they would gain would be tremendous. Repression may become an irresistible temptation by a national government trying to protect their own citizens. Even democratic governments may find themselves compelled to resort to harsh security measures that curtail civil rights. (Rand 1975)

Lt. Gen. Yarborough, a CIA covert operations career officer who was at the Glassboro, N.J. nuclear terrorism planning and briefing seminar where he said that "the CIA controls 90 per cent of the world's terrorism," has predicted that "the dangers of a nuclear terrorist attack grow exponentially every day. I think that it will first come as hoax and then as the real thing. The Fourth of July will see an uprising of terrorism in the United States that will make people give up certain of their liberties. After the Fourth of July people will be anxious to see the kind of mechanics for handling such terrorists as rapidly as possible."

And the stories in the press about how a nuclear bomb can be made in a basement are planted National Security Council articles to condition you for the coming nuclear terrorist attack. The articles are a hoax. The only way a nuclear bomb can be exploded is if the NSC hands one over with detailed decoding instructions to trained personnel. Where do such people exist?

The National Security Council's terror apparatus operating from the Institute for Policy Studies networks — which is also organizing the Bicentennial riots — has that unique capability!

The Institute and its affiliate the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency serve as top level National Security Council Advisors on all nuclear warfare and nuclear procurement issues! The same network that lists leading Weathermen Maoist terrorist BIA killers, Bicentennial rioters — the same group has top National Security Council clearance and is in daily touch with the nation's top nuclear planning and development agencies!

Here is only a very small partial list of government agencies who work closely with the Institute:

- Atomic Energy Commission
- Energy Research and Development Administration
- Director of Missile Defense (Dept. of Defense)
- National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA)
- Department of International Security Policy and Planning (Dept. of State)
- U.S. Army Combat Development Command
- Rand Corporation
- National Security Council
- Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense

The director of the Institute, Marcus Raskin (also on the Board of Directors of the NSC spawned Counterspy magazine) served as Science and Technical Advisor to Lyndon Johnson and represented the United States at the Geneva Disarmament talks!

This is the Rockefeller network that will — if they are not stopped — deliver a nuclear bomb to your city in the next month.

Dismantle The Terrorist Network

This is the same network that attempted to assassinate President Ford. The time has come to dismantle the synthetically created left and right countergangs created by Rockefeller's NSC. This is how the networks are organized:

At the top is a layer of NSC controllers like Raskin, Barnett and Waskow of the Institute who spawn zombie countergangs. They provide the cash, the training, the field agents, the drug networks, the press coverage and coordinate their activity with other agencies such as the LEAA, the International Chiefs of Police, the FBI, etc.

Beneath and intermeshed with the countergangs is a massive layer numbering into the thousands of brainwashed zombies who are churned out of brainwashing institutions and serve as the raw material out of which synthetic gangs are maintained. Abnormal health projects funded by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, the Ford Foundation, the National Institute of Mental Health, the Office of Economic Opportunity, numerous drug clinics run by these agencies, to name only a few, are involved in brainwashing and creation of terror hit squads like the SLA (created by the LEAA at Vacaville Prison Behavior Modification Center), the BLA, RU Weathermen, the Manson cult and so forth.

Beneath this layer is a professional terrorist assassination capability of NSC Secret Teams who have carried out every political assassination on Rockefeller's orders. It is always the second level of the network — the patsies and zombies like Sirhan or Oswald, etc. — who are set up to be captured in order to keep the entire network from being revealed.

Make no mistake about it: both the left and right gangs are spawned by the NSC. The Institute works closely with the International Chiefs of Police, which in turn is the creation of IBM and has provided funding and organizational muscle for every killer right wing group in the past 20 years. The Institute also works with the Rockefeller controlled American Conservative Union and the American Security Council. There is even one ultra right John Birchite Congressman, Larry McDonald (D Georgia) who rants and raves about Communist Conspiracy and who has formed a committee to investigate Congress for KGB infiltration and whose top staffer, S. Louise Rees, is a long standing ex member of the Institute for Policy Studies.

We did not fight Nazism in World War II to have our country overrun by Nazi left and right zombie gangs organized by the National Security Council. The thousands of Americans who fell in Europe, North Africa and the Pacific did not give their lives so that Rockefeller could impose fascism here at home. They did not die to see their cities infested by drugged and brainwashed zombies created by the NSC. You did not fight in the war so that in 1966 you or your family might be gunned down by one of Marcus Raskin's blind terrorists. You did not risk your life so that your city would become one of Rockefeller's target cities for nuclear terrorism.

Immediately mobilize everyone you know to force Congress, the Administration, the police and other government agencies to dismember the NSC's terror assassination network — before it's too late.

- Immediate Dismantling of the Institute for Policy Studies and Its Branches
- Immediate Investigation and Punishment for the Nuclear Terrorist Plotters
- Immediate Removal of Rockefeller and Kissinger from Office
- Liquidation of All National Security Council "Left" and "Right" Countergangs
- Immediate and Thoroughgoing Investigation Into the Three-Tier Terrorist-Assassination Networks

PURPOSE: To advise of telephonic contact on 5/29/76, with [REDACTED] U.S. Labor Party, who had called FBIHQ requesting to speak with Deputy Associate Director James B. Adams.

SYNOPSIS: [REDACTED] U.S. Labor Party, telephoned FBIHQ on the night of 5/29/76, asking to speak with Deputy Associate Director James B. Adams. He was told Mr. Adams was unavailable and General Investigative Division (GID) Supervisor [REDACTED] subsequently telephonically contacted [REDACTED]

He furnished information regarding what he alleged to be a plot by an invisible, illegal government, headed by Vice-President Rockefeller, to take over the country from the legitimate authorities. He said much of the information he provided had already been furnished to the FBI and other authorities, but said NBC Evening News on 5/29/76, had carried a story which indicated the plot was moving into action. This story had to do with the Nuclear Regulatory Commission placing its facilities on a low level alert for the Memorial Day weekend in view of threats allegedly received against nuclear operations. [REDACTED] advised he is coming to FBIHQ on 6/1/76, to present details regarding his allegations.

RECOMMENDATION: For information of GID and Intelligence Division in view of [REDACTED] claim that he is coming to FBIHQ on 6/1/76, to present details regarding his allegations.

Re: CONTACT WITH [REDACTED]

b6

DETAILS: [REDACTED] U.S. Labor Party, telephonically contacted FBIHQ on the night of 5/29/76, asking to speak to Deputy Associate Director James B. Adams. When told that Mr. Adams was unavailable, he asked to speak with someone familiar with recent complaints he had filed.

GID has been handling complaints received from [REDACTED] under the Civil Rights - Federally Protected Activities and Extortion Statutes. Therefore, GID Supervisor [REDACTED] telephonically contacted [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]. He stated a conference was held in Glassboro, New Jersey on 4/26-28/76, ostensibly to study terrorism, but it was actually a gathering of individuals who are involved in plotting a takeover of the U.S. Government. Among those attending were individuals associated with [REDACTED] NATO, and other U.S. and Western Europe organizations. Also attending was a Lt. General (Retired) William Yarborough, who has said that 90% of all terrorists in the world are controlled by the [REDACTED] P.S.

[REDACTED] said an invisible illegal government headed by Vice-President Rockefeller, is doing the plotting to take over the U.S. Government. He said an operations group is working out of the Institute for Policy Studies, and includes Weather Underground members. Plans are being made to take some sort of action during Bicentennial celebrations in Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He said newspaper reporter Ron Rosiel of Philadelphia has Pa received information from underground contacts that a major action would be taken against a keynote speaker at celebrations on 7/4/76, in Philadelphia. [REDACTED] speculated that the target would be President Ford and an assassination attempt was a possibility.

[REDACTED] continued by stating the group plans to take over by creating nuclear fear in the U.S., thus setting the stage for a military takeover of the legitimate government, with the new government headed by Vice-President Rockefeller.

The nuclear fear can be instilled by real or hoax threats. He said the hoax stage of the plot has already started as evidenced by the NBC Evening News story on 5/29/76, concerning the Nuclear Regulatory Commission placing its facilities on a low level alert for the Memorial Day weekend in view of a threat received against nuclear operations (Intelligence Division has information regarding this incident).

[REDACTED] stated he had previously furnished most of the information to the FBI and other authorities.

Wash. DC

[redacted] Congressman RONALD SARASIN's office, 135 Grand Street, Waterbury, Connecticut, advised that on the afternoon of May 29, 1976, he received a telephone call from [redacted] Hartford, Connecticut, who identified himself as a member of the Connecticut Labor Party. [redacted] said he wanted to talk with Congressman SARASIN regarding information he had received through sources to the effect that there would be an attempt on President FORD's life at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on July 4, 1976. [redacted] did not reveal his source, but said the attempt might be made by the "Institute for Policy Studies" or "subversive groups under its direction." [redacted] said he suggested to [redacted] that he contact the FBI and [redacted] stated he had talked with the FBI and indicated the FBI would take no action on this matter. [redacted] said [redacted] wanted the information forwarded to Washington and wanted to know if the Congressman would get back to him personally. [redacted] said he made no commitment to [redacted] in this regard. He said the phone call lasted about 15 minutes and the caller, who identified himself as [redacted] appeared to be a [redacted] and spoke in a calm, collected manner.

Mr. [redacted] said he had checked with other members of Congressman SARASIN's office and had ascertained that [redacted] had called that office several times in the past regarding labor and related bills and always wanted a congressional inquiry in these matters. [redacted] said no commitments had ever been made to [redacted] since he is not a constituent in Mr. SARASIN's district.

NATIONAL CAUCUS OF LABOR
COMMITTEES (NCLC)

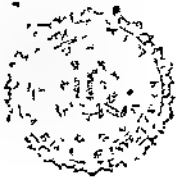

The NCLC is a violence-oriented, Marxist, revolutionary organization which aims to replace democracy in the United States with a communist form of government. Headquartered in New York City, NCLC has nearly 1,000 members in chapters in more than 50 cities in this country and additional members in affiliated chapters in Canada, Mexico, Europe, Asia and Australia [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has predicted NCLC will eventually gain state power in the United States and ultimately in the world

b7c

The NCLC established a front group in November, 1974, known as the Fusion Energy Foundation (FEF), for the purpose of gathering information on thermonuclear fusion power and in June, 1975, the Labor Organizers Defense Fund (LODF), for the purpose of obtaining financial and moral support for the various civil suits initiated by NCLC. The U.S. Labor Party (USLP) continues as the political arm of NCLC, the platform from which NCLC runs candidates for public office. The International Press Service (IPS) is the official press service for NCLC which enables members to obtain press cards. Campaigner Publications continues to publish the semiweekly newspaper of NCLC, "New Solidarity," printed in different languages for dissemination nationally and abroad.

In the Spring of 1975, NCLC inaugurated a harassment program called "Operation Counter-Punch," directed against big business and law enforcement, particularly the FBI.

ALLEGATIONS FROM UNITED STATES LABOR PARTY
REGARDING ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT AGAINST PRESIDENT FORD.
JULY 4, 1976
AT PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA
THREATS AGAINST THE PRESIDENT

Ronald Koziol, Newspaper Reporter, Chicago Tribune Newspaper, 435 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised he has no information concerning any assassination attempts against President Ford. Mr. Koziol advised he was in the San Francisco, California Bay area covering the Patty Hearst trial in mid-March, 1976, when Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Agents raided a house and arrested six people. Mr. Koziol developed information from "sources" that one of the people arrested was furnishing information to the FBI concerning assassination attempts during the Republican National Convention against President Gerald Ford and Ronald Reagan. All the information reported by Koziol was furnished by these "sources" and was the result of the FBI investigation. Koziol stated he has no other independent information concerning any assassination attempts.

Without reference being made, Koziol independently mentioned the United States Labor Party which continues as the political arm of the National Caucus of Labor (see appendix). He described the USLP as very imaginative with the ability to take a small fact and build it into a conspiracy. In the past, Koziol has received unfounded allegations from the United States Labor Party concerning alleged conspiracies to take over the government. Koziol stated that United States Labor Party has never been able to substantiate these allegations with facts.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Reference is made to your memorandum dated June 4, 1976, concerning a telephone call you received from an individual identifying himself as [redacted] of the U. S. Labor Party (USLP).

With respect to the comments of [redacted] as set forth in your memorandum, representatives of the U. S. Labor Party have been in contact with several of our field offices, primarily in Cleveland, Ohio, and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and have furnished anonymous material purporting to be threats to assassinate various USLP candidates for elective offices. Some of these individuals reportedly have also received anonymous telephone calls threatening assassination.

In addition, representatives of the USLP have telephonically contacted FBI field offices (FOIA) on a number of occasions. On June 1, 1976, two representatives appeared at FBIHQ and furnished a number of publications, some of which contained material alleging conspiracies and plots being engineered by Vice President Rockefeller and Attorney General Levi to overthrow the Government and assassinate President Ford. Attached for ready reference is a copy of one of the publications which is representative of the general nature of the material provided. Deputy Assistant Attorney General Robert Reuch of the Criminal Division of the Department has also been a recipient of telephone calls from USLP representatives in this matter.

In a memorandum dated May 1, 1976, you requested that the FBI investigate these matters as possible violations of Title 18, U. S. Code 875(c) and 875(third paragraph) (obstruction statutes) or Title 18, U. S. Code 2385(a)(1) (Unlawfully Protected Activity - Intimidation by Force or Threat of Force - Candidate for Elective Office). Appropriate investigation is continuing on such allegations, and results are being furnished to the Criminal Division and the Civil Rights Division of the Department as received. No substantial information to establish a possible violation of the designated statutes has been developed to date. Some alleged victims of threats refused to furnish to the FBI the alleged threatening letters, and some named Attorney General Levi and Director Kelley as direct or indirect suspects responsible for the threats.

Your memorandum states that [] advised you that a [] with the USLP, had been told by [] that the Bureau had been ordered to cease investigation because of the Attorney General's guidelines and because of the pendency of a suit against the Bureau by the Institute for Policy Studies.

In possible clarification of this comment, it is to be noted that the FBI is not investigating the USLP or its members if that membership is based solely on USLP activities however, as previously stated, we are conducting investigation of allegations of death threats against USLP candidates and are furnishing results to the Department and U. S. Attorneys for appropriate determination as to action to be taken.

This is for your information.

has previously been furnished to U. S. Secret Service, Department of State, Nuclear Energy authorities, and other appropriate government agencies. In one of the documents furnished by USLP representatives on 6/1/76, copies of which have already been furnished to the Department, they make reference to a Rockefeller - Kissinger plot to unleash a "Nuclear Pearl Harbor" attack against a major U. Levi and Assassin Team Cornered; SLP Legal Attacks Force Probe

Irvin Hamerman

NEW YORK May 23 (IPS) — For the first time ever, the U S government has been forced to launch an official full investigation into a major ongoing "helping" assassination and terrorism. On May 21, the head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's Civil Division in Cleveland, Ohio informed Friedman, the U S Labor Party's northern Ohio campaign manager that the Justice Department had ordered the FBI to launch an investigation into the assassination attempts against campaign workers and aides on the ticket of Lyndon B. Johnson's presidential campaign. Ohio FBI has assigned at least 100 units to the emergency investigation of "all possible criminal acts in the case including criminal extortion."

In Washington D C Assistant Attorney General Robert Keuch after days of evasion and stonewalling of SLP appeals for investigation was forced to confirm by telephone the extraordinary Justice Department response to a full scale Labor Party legal offensive and broad non-sanctioned mobilization against Rockefeller's domestic assassination terrorist networks controlled by the head of the Justice Department Richard Levi and FBI Director John Edgar Hoover. The now official government investigation along with the arsenal of U S Labor Party law stretching from emergency evidentiary actions in Cleveland and Pittsburgh against Levi's ATF (Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearm) right-wing assassination networks to over 30 anti police state legal action headed by LaRouche vs Levi, LaRouche vs Rockefeller, the Detroit FBI case, and the Reading Suit — boxes in domestic arch fascist Levi and other principal conspirators in Rockefeller's police-state and blind terror capability. With the notorious Church committee coverup made an official mockery, the population led by the broad anti-fascist working class mobilization, now has the clear task of forcing Congress to initiate an urgent open investigation leading to emergency legislative action along the lines of the USLP proposed Law Enforcement Reform Act.

Levi, Rockefeller's personal Nazi legal expert for three and a half decades stands exposed at precisely the moment he is engineering Rockefeller's political destabilization and assassination operation against President Gerald Ford through the very same networks employed in the terror operation against the U S Labor Party. For the past 10 days, Levi himself has been the high profile protagonist in a Rockefeller ploy to force Ford publicly into the controlled environment of "taking a position" on the phony busing issue. Levi's out-of-the-blue offer last week to file a "friend of the court" brief to the U S Supreme Court advising on how his henchman, Chief Justice Warren Burger should rule "against busing" has been manipulated all week through the national media to force Ford into choosing one of the two controlled "choices" offered by Levi: should the case be filed in respect to Boston or another city. An all-out "black propaganda" psychological warfare press campaign throughout the week has attempted to portray a Ford "cabinet rift" on the issue of busing.

After a personal meeting with Levi on Friday, Ford himself informed the nation that the decision to "intervene" on the busing issue was "entirely up to Levi." The President affirmed his position as defined by already established Congressional Executive and Supreme Court policy, thereby placing himself above the manufactured "issue." That evening Transportation Secretary Coleman, the only black member of the cabinet, launched into a public critique of his good friend Levi in an official "chiding" against any Levi intervention into the Supreme Court on the issue. With the phony busing "hot potato" tossed right back into Levi's lap, one highly placed Washington official and national civil rights leader underscored that the busing issue revival was a straight-out "Rockefeller tactic to divert the American people from any kind of coherent foreign policy debate" at precisely the moment of Kissinger's thermonuclear war danger in the Mideast and the Leveled national police state conspiracy.

The U S electorate widely in-candidate Lyndon LaRouche's "What Happened to Integration?" article and broad Labor Party agitation and exposure of the phony "racism" issue, has already demonstrated its complete rejection of the relevance of the issue to this year's presidential campaign in the overwhelming defeat of the Wallace primary bids in Massachusetts, Michigan, Maryland and elsewhere.

Levi Exposed and Vulnerable

The Labor Party's forcing of a full investigation into the assassination threats against the LaRouche Evans electoral campaign, an investigation which officially began hours before the Ford-Levi meeting on Friday, completely corners the lawless Attorney General Levi, whose longstanding service to Rockefeller began with his defense of Standard Oil in the early 1940s against charges that the Rockefellers had collaborated with the notorious I G Farben firm in setting up the German Nazi regime, is in the most vulnerable situation. The networks which Levi employed in his assassination and Cointelpro operations against the U S Labor Party — from Reading through Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Youngstown and Michigan via upstate New York — intersect exactly with the "right wing" gun-and-drug running assassination teams which are being activated for presidential assassination capability. Forces close to the President have launched the official investigation through Levi and Kelly's own agencies, as the Labor Party has recommended and forced through the population's pressure, as the best "surgical tactic" of dismantling the Rockefeller-Levi domestic terror apparatus through attacking its "Achilles' Heel" Cointelpro operations against the LaRouche Evans campaign.

In FBI regional headquarters in Cleveland, extortion experts have already begun analysis of the written death threats and other investigators have begun filing preliminary reports. In Reading, Pennsylvania, federal officials have begun interviews and investigations of the terrorists and assassins in the gun and drug running networks. Two defendants in the USLP Pittsburgh and Cleveland cases have already been visited, psychotic William Sickles, Northeast Coordinator of the American Revolutionary Army and Imperial Wizard of the Aryan Knights of the Klu Klux Klan, and his criminal sidekick Phil Meier have been questioned on the case. Reliable sources indicate that the entire network is panicked: key terrorists are "going underground."

Any successful dismantling of the Rockefeller-Levi domestic terror apparatus must be guided by the long-standing expertise and knowledge of the U S Labor Party. The police state dirty thug network operates on three levels. The top level is composed of a vast cover network of "left and right wing" countergangs such as the National Revolutionary Army, Revolutionary Union, Klu Klux Klan, Progressive Labor, Communist Party USA, anti-busing groups and so forth. The second tier is an immense network of brainwashed "interchangeable parts," psychotics who are spawned and then unleashed from prison mental hospitals and drug institutions like the notorious Vaccaville Medical Facility in California or the Lincoln Detox operation in New York. Behind the cover of the second tier, the actual assassins — demolitions experts and the like — are deployed.

The task in destroying the assassination capability rests in successfully, politically destabilizing the cover networks and their real controllers. The key is not behind the scenes investigations but open full press exposures of the CIA-FBI-Justice Department-ATF networks. Names must be openly named in the press. The controllers of the left and right wing cover network countergangs — Marc Raskin of the Institute for Policy Studies and the Ford Foundation, McGeorge Bundy — must be exposed. The public documentation of International Association of Chiefs of Police-IBM control over the same international "countergang" network discredits and weakens the entire network infrastructure. The necessary effect is a "rippling inoculation" throwing more and more sunlight on the operations in ever wider circles of the national press so that the working class and others concerned can place their full support behind the dismantling operation and isolate the key conspirators.

The broad-based forces of the U S Labor Party in the civil rights and labor movement, the World War I veterans organizations and ethnic communities, now must escalate their pressure to force full Congressional review of the investigation and the immediate impeachment of fiends Levi, Kissinger and Rockefeller. We caution, in no uncertain terms, that once the dismantling of the terror and

(f) interviews of persons having, or thought to have, knowledge of a subject's activities and associations;

(g) trash covers.

3. The Federal Bureau of Investigation shall not collect, gather, index, file, maintain, store or disseminate any information regarding the plaintiffs, their associations, speech or activities except in accordance with Federal statute, executive order or regulation in connection with the authorized investigative or administrative functions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

4. Nothing in the foregoing paragraphs shall be construed to limit or restrict plaintiffs' rights under the United States Constitution and Federal law and nothing therein shall allow the Federal Bureau of Investigation to conduct any investigations of plaintiffs not otherwise in accordance with the Constitution or Federal law or applicable internal regulations.

5. With regard to Federal Bureau of Investigation Headquarters and field office files pertaining to investigations of the plaintiffs conducted prior to March, 1974, no information contained therein which relates to the plaintiffs' exercise of rights guaranteed under the First Amendment to the Constitution shall be used or disseminated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to any private citizen, the public, or any state, Federal or local agency except for the following purposes:

- 1) To respond to discovery demands in litigation pursuant to the federal rules of criminal or civil procedure or to respond to subpoenas or other demands of a state court or other authority;
- 2) To respond to requests under the Freedom of Information Act or the Privacy Act;
- 3) In connection with personnel investigations, such as of Federal employees, applicants for Federal employment, or for security clearances, which the Federal Bureau of Investigation is required to conduct pursuant to statute, executive order or other lawful authority;
- 4) In connection with an authorized foreign intelligence or law enforcement activity; provided, however, that prior to any such use or dissemination the concurrence of Legal Counsel Division must be obtained.

6. A copy of this Stipulated Settlement Of Issues And Dismissal shall be filed and permanently retained as the top serial in each file section or volume of each Headquarters and field office file pertaining to plaintiffs.

7. Unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, the files referred to in Paragraphs 5 and 6 above will be subject to disposition in accordance with the provisions of Title 44, United States Code, Chapter 33, and implementing regulations.

8. Costs are to be awarded in favor of plaintiffs, who shall submit an accounting of taxable costs to the Department of Justice.

9. Plaintiffs withdraw all demands for relief set forth in the presently pending Amended Complaint in this action and agree to the dismissal from this suit of defendants John N. Mitchell, John D. Ehrlichman, Robert C. Mardian, Terry T. O'Connor, William T. Tucker, Charles M. Sawyer, Robert E. Yates and Robert W. Feuer.

10. In agreeing to this Stipulation neither plaintiffs nor defendants retract or abandon the positions they, or any of them, have stated in the pleadings and papers herein concerning the constitutionality of the conduct alleged in plaintiffs' complaint. The parties recognize that these issues are contested, and they enter into this Stipulation as a settlement of contested claims and without making any admissions concerning any of said claims.

11. In consideration of the foregoing, plaintiffs and the aforesaid defendants stipulate and agree, by their undersigned counsel, to dismiss this civil action with prejudice as against those defendants.

Re Bureau airtel to WFO 6/7/73.

Enclosed for the Bureau are five copies of LHM dated and captioned as above. Also enclosed for the Bureau are five copies of FD 302 by SA ROBERT W. FEUER dated 6/27/73 and five copies of an FD 302 by SAs [redacted] dated 6/27/73.

For the information of the Bureau, the enclosed 302s by SAs ROBERT W. FEUER, [redacted] have not been included in the enclosed LHM and are being furnished for the information of the Bureau inasmuch as investigation by WFO concerning the allegation of a burglary of the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), appears to be unfounded and the investigation failed to establish any violation of the civil rights of IPS or captioned individuals. It is believed that the Bureau may not wish to disseminate the information contained in the 302s by SAs FEUER, [redacted] outside the Bureau at this time. It is also noted the information contained in these FD 302s is additional information to that requested by the Bureau in referenced Bureau airtel of 6/7/73.

MCD-52 It is the opinion of WFO that the current allegations made by MITCHELL ROGOVIN, Attorney for IPS, may be provocative actions in an attempt to gain access to FBI files based on statements by ROGOVIN contained in the enclosed LHM on page nine, paragraph two. ROGOVIN cited an incident which occurred in January, 1972, when an individual, accompanied by his attorney, came to ROGOVIN's office and furnished an affidavit in which he admitted being

[redacted]
[redacted] This individual furnished details [redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] the individual discussed in the FD 302s by SAs [redacted] is believed identical with the unknown individual mentioned by MITCHELL ROGOVIN, Attorney for IPS, inasmuch as [redacted] has previously been

[redacted]
[redacted] Weathermen fugitives who are believed to have been in contact with individuals at IPS. At no time was [redacted] ever observed in the vicinity of IPS by SAs [redacted]. The information furnished by the unknown individual to ROGOVIN and [redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] were interviewed and furnished substantially the same information contained in the letter from ROGOVIN to Acting Director WILLIAM D. RUCKELSHAUS, which was furnished to WFO by referenced Bureau airtel.

From interview [redacted]

[redacted] it was determined there was no evidence of a breaking and entering of the IPS Building on May 24, 1973. [redacted] stated the door to IPS was locked on his arrival, nothing appeared disturbed, and that he received no information from any IPS employees indicating anything had been discovered missing.

It should be noted that investigation determined that District of Columbia License Number 774-443 is issued for use on MPD cruiser number 737 which is assigned to Third District Detectives. Interview of Plainclothesman [redacted] to whom this vehicle was assigned on 5/24/73, determined [redacted] was at the Dupont Plaza Hotel, 1500 New Hampshire Avenue, N. W., WDC, which hotel is located next door to the IPS Building at the approximate time the first telephone call was received [redacted] was working the midnight shift and stated his first stop when leaving Third District Detectives is usually the Dupont Plaza where he goes for coffee. [redacted] stated he is also investigating a burglary at the Dupont Plaza which occurred in early May, 1973, [redacted] [redacted] advised he usually parks his vehicle in front of the Dupont Plaza or in a taxi stand immediately north of the hotel. It was determined the taxi stand referred to by [redacted] is located in front of 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N. W., which is the address of IPS.

It appears that the suspicions of ROGOVIN [redacted] [redacted] arose from the fact that when District of Columbia Councilman TEDSON MEYERS checked District Of Columbia License Number 774-443 at the request [redacted] through public records at the Department of Motor Vehicles, this number was listed to a private citizen and the complainants obviously knew this license plate number was on a police vehicle. It is noted that the investigation by the Intelligence Unit of the MPD did not disclose the mixup in Department of Motor Vehicles records and that this license plate number is actually on a police vehicle. This is evident by the fact a lookout was issued by the Intelligence Division for the vehicle bearing this license plate number. Further, District of Columbia License Number 774-443 and the description of the vehicle on which this license number is affixed is prominently displayed in the Third District Detectives Squadroom along with license plate number and descriptions of other vehicles assigned to the Third District as observed by SA [redacted] [redacted] when interviewing [redacted]

WFO records and the personal recollection of SA ROBERT W. FEUER, reflects WFO maintained lookout on IPS on a spot check basis beginning in October, 1970. This lookout was manned on a daily basis from February, 1971 until March, 1971 and again from July 9, 1971 through October 28, 1971 at which time it was permanently closed. The second lookout on IPS was utilized intermittently from July, 1971 to July or August, 1972. At no time was a boom mike operated in the vicinity of IPS and no burglaries were ever committed.

WFO 44-951

For the information of the Bureau, previous investigation at WFO concerning [redacted] who is identical to the victim, was conducted as follows:

In October of 1967, [redacted]

[redacted] Milwaukee was office of origin in this case.

In 1961, [redacted]

[redacted] office of origin the Bureau, which investigation was updated in 1963.

In 1962, [redacted]

In October of 1971, the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) wrote a letter to the Department of Justice requesting a file concerning [redacted] which had been prepared and allegedly was being maintained by the Internal Security Division of the Department of Justice. This letter was forwarded to the Bureau by the Department of Justice and results of investigation conducted by WFO concerning this inquiry are contained in WFO LHM dated 3/10/72, captioned [redacted]

UACB, no further investigation is being conducted by WFO due to the lack of evidence reflecting a civil rights violation and no copy of this LHM is being furnished to the United States Attorney, Washington, D. C.

A review of records of the Washington Field Office (WFO) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), plus personal recollection of SA ROBERT W. FEUER reflects that WFO maintained a lookout on the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), on a spot check basis, beginning in October, 1970. From February, 1971 until March 19, 1971, this lookout was manned on a daily basis, possibly including one or more weekends. The lookout was manned once again from July 9, 1971 through October 28, 1971, at which latter date it was permanently closed.

A second lookout on IPS was utilized intermittently by the FBI on a cost free basis, from a room in the Hotel Dupont Plaza, Dupont Circle, WDC, from July, 1971 to July or August, 1972. This room was utilized primarily as a starting place from which to conduct surveillances in order to identify personnel at IPS. The room was used periodically, when needed, and if it was available, mostly during daytime hours, and it is not recalled that it was ever used on weekends.

At no time did the FBI ever operate a boom mike to record conversations in the vicinity of IPS, from the Hotel Dupont Plaza, or anywhere else. No burglaries were ever committed.

The FBI never had any type of operation or lookout on IPS at the Sulgrave Club on Dupont Circle.

Re: The Institute for Policy Studies 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N. W.

Dear Mr. Ruckelshaus:

As counsel for the Institute for Policy Studies, we wish to disclose the following information. On the evening of May 24th, [redacted] of the Institute for Policy Studies, [redacted] received an anonymous telephone call at their home at 1:35 a.m. indicating that two plainclothesmen had entered the Institute for Policy Studies at the above-captioned address shortly before the call. [redacted] called the police, while [redacted] left his home for the Institute. Within thirty minutes from the call, [redacted] appeared at the Institute where he was subsequently met by a Metropolitan Police Officer at approximately 2:05 a.m. A search of the premises by [redacted] the police officer did not reveal any individuals within.

While [redacted] was at the Institute, [redacted] received another phone call from the same party who, once again, did not identify himself. At that time, he indicated that the two individuals who he referred to as detectives, had left the Institute before either [redacted] the police arrived and departed in a bronze-colored car with a District of Columbia license No. 774-443.

b6
b7C

The automobile appears to be registered in the name of Edward Moore Cannady of 2213 Rhode Island Avenue, N. E., Apartment No. 3. The reference in the above paragraph to "plainclothesmen" and "detectives" is the language of the anonymous caller. Our client, has no information other than that which is set forth above.

Over the past four years, the Institute has been advised on a number of occasions that it has been surveilled by federal and local law enforcement agencies including, but not limited to, electronic surveillance and breaking and entering. Up until recent months, we have declined to press the issue of violations of the civil rights of this organization and its members. Recent developments tend to indicate that refraining from bringing such indignities to the attention of the authorities is not consistent with Constitutional safeguards and is indeed harmful to law enforcement.

We would appreciate it, therefore, if you cause an investigation to be conducted -- not simply into an alleged burglary -- but rather into what appears to be a pattern of illegal surveillance including illegal entry by law enforcement agencies. We would also appreciate information regarding any electronic surveillance. Such an investigation should also include any evidence of electronic surveillance of the Institute; its officers, or employees or those associated with the organization.

Dear Mr. Rogovin:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter dated May 25, 1973, regarding the Institute for Policy Studies in Washington, D. C.

[redacted] will be interviewed for specific facts as to a possible violation of their civil rights, as referred to in your letter. The results of their interviews and any inquiries conducted will be furnished to the U. S. Department of Justice, for a determination as to whether any possible violation of Federal laws exists.

MITCHELL ROGOVIN, Attorney, Law Firm of Arnold and Porter, 1903 N Street, N. W., was advised of the identities of [redacted] Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and that the interview concerned allegations of the violation of the civil rights of the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N. W., and its members. ROGOVIN voluntarily furnished the following information:

ROGOVIN inquired as to where SAs [redacted] were assigned and was advised they were assigned to the Washington Field Office. He stated he had expected someone from the Inspection Unit inasmuch as allegations of the violation of civil rights of IPS involved the FBI and he felt the investigation should not be handled by contemporaries of those involved.

ROGOVIN stated that during the past several years there have been surveillances by Federal and local law enforcement agencies of the IPS and its members and that information had been received in the form of affidavits from several people that the FBI and the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) were involved in electronic surveillances and in the burglary of the IPS premises. As an example, he cited the following incident:

In January, 1972, an individual came to his office, using an assumed name, and was accompanied by his attorney. This individual furnished an affidavit in which he admitted being

b6
b7CInterviewed on 6/20/73 at Washington, D. C. File # 44-951by SAs [redacted] RDB:rah Date dictated 6/20/73

Two days later, this individual met with SA [redacted] at which time SA [redacted] had the manila envelope. SA [redacted]

ROGOVIN stated that information furnished by this individual related to actual events at IPS and the envelope, according to this individual [redacted]

[redacted] ROGOVIN stated he believed that the above-mentioned white female, who is approximately [redacted] years of age, stole these documents from IPS and that this action should be considered a theft. The individual stated that in conversation concerning statements made by [redacted] SAs [redacted] commented to the effect that [redacted] knew a lot, but an effort was being made to discredit [redacted]

ROGOVIN also stated an allegation had been made that a boom mike had been operated in a suite at the Dupont Plaza Hotel to record conversations in the vicinity of IPS. He stated this suite is alleged to have been rented by the FBI, but he had no proof of this. ROGOVIN stated that this information could probably be obtained from a review of FBI files. He stated that based on his experiences with the Department of Justice, he believed a "captioned" file on IPS could readily be located. ROGOVIN stated that it is also alleged the FBI had some type of operation in the Solgrave (Phonetic) Club, located on Dupont Circle.

ROGOVIN stated he also had an affidavit from a former SA of the FBI in which the former agent alleged the Riggs National Bank had improperly turned bank records concerning IPS over to the FBI. He stated he had been in contact with officials of the Riggs National Bank and these officials would not acknowledge that this took place. However, they stated such actions will not take place in the future. While furnishing information concerning bank records, ROGOVIN referred to the Wall affidavit and stated this affidavit had been published by the New York Times.

ROGOVIN stated that an IPS informant furnished information that he had been told [redacted] who he believes is currently employed [redacted] [redacted] that the IPS is on every Government agency list and is bugged. [redacted] is alleged to have stated the FBI has a service to have bugs removed periodically.

ROGOVIN stated that two Fellows of IPS had been subpoenaed to Boston for an appearance before a Federal Grand Jury in connection with the Pentagon papers case. He stated these subpoenas were based on information furnished by visitors to IPS and the fact IPS telephones had been tapped. However, neither he nor IPS have received inventory as required under the Safe Streets Act that bugging was being done. He also stated the home telephones of several IPS employees have also been tapped.

ROGOVIN stated he has affidavits from several IPS employees to document the above allegations, but could not furnish these affidavits to the FBI without first consulting with the individuals who furnished the affidavits. With regard to the individual who furnished the information concerning SA [redacted] and SA [redacted] this individual may be made available for interview by FBI Agents after consultation with this individual's attorney. ROGOVIN stated this individual is quite fearful of both the MPD and the FBI and may be reluctant to be interviewed by FBI Agents.

ROGOVIN stated that he is familiar with FBI operations, having worked in the Justice Department for several years and that he has serious reservations about the FBI investigating the FBI. He stated that he feels with recent changes both within the FBI and the Department of Justice in the last two years, it may now be possible for a proper investigation to be conducted by the FBI in this matter to disclose any illegal burglaries or wiretaps by the MPD or the FBI. He stated that he believed that information which may have been "squirrelled away" and not brought to the attention of the Bureau may now be uncovered and properly reported to the FBI Headquarters. He stated that if he felt the FBI could not or would not conduct a full investigation in this matter, discussions would be held with IPS with regard to filing a civil suit and requesting full disclosure of FBI records.

ROGOVIN stated he believed he had furnished enough information at this time to "whet the appetite" of the Civil Rights Division, United States Department of Justice (USDJ). He stated he would be willing to cooperate with the FBI in furnishing any information requested by the USDJ.

With regard to the letter from Acting Director WILLIAM D. RUCKELSHAUS dated June 7, 1973, in response to ROGOVIN's letter dated May 25, 1973, ROGOVIN stated he had not made any inquiries to the USDJ concerning any electronic surveillances.

ROGOVIN stated he had received a letter from MPD Chief of Police JERRY V. WILSON in which Chief WILSON advised there was nothing illegal about physical surveillance; that a check with several Federal agencies had failed to locate anyone with an interest in IPS and that the IPS was of no interest to the MPD. Chief WILSON advised that if specific information concerning ROGOVIN's charges, including the names, addresses and telephone numbers of IPS members involved was furnished, a detailed investigation could be conducted. Chief WILSON advised an immediate investigation concerning the alleged burglary of May 24, 1973, was being conducted. However, ROGOVIN advised that no one from the MPD had contacted him [redacted] or anyone else at IPS concerning the matter.

burglary of the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), on the evening of May 24, 1973. [redacted] voluntarily furnished the following information:

[redacted] advised that at approximately 1:30 a.m. on May 24, 1973, she was awakened by her telephone ringing.
She answered the telephone and a man asked if she was [redacted] [redacted] and when she stated she was, he stated he was sorry to bother her so late at night, but he was a friend of the Institute.
He stated he had just been at the building and two men had gotten out of their car and entered the Institute. He stated all the lights were on in the building. [redacted] asked if he thought they were robbing the Institute and the man stated he did not know. [redacted] stated she should probably call the police and the man stated the two individuals who entered the building were in a "cruiser car" and looked like "detectives".
[redacted] stated she would tell her husband and the conversation was terminated.

[redacted] stated she woke her husband and told him about this incident and then called the Dupont Circle Precinct.
She was told that a "generator" was out, and had been for some time, and that the Precinct was unable to send a unit to the IPS building but they could hear the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), radio cars. She stated her husband got dressed and left for the Institute and she again called the police. At this time, she was told a car had just arrived at the station house and was being dispatched to the IPS building. [redacted] stated that she spoke to two different officers when she made the calls to the police. She stated that at approximately 1:55 a.m. the man telephonically contacted her again and stated he saw that she had sent the police. The man stated the two men had just left and that they were two white men wearing business suits who looked like "detectives." The man stated they were driving a bronze colored Ford with D.C. license plates, but she furnished the following information:

[redacted] advised that on the evening of May 23, 1973, he had arrived home late at night, returning from a trip to New York City. At approximately 1:30 a.m., on the morning of May 24, 1973, his wife woke him up and advised a man had just called and stated he had seen two white men go into IPS.
He stated it took him about 20 minutes to fully wake up and get himself together, at which time he left his residence and went to the IPS Building. He stated he arrived at about 2:05 a.m., and noted that most of the lights in rooms in the front of the building were on. He stated the front door to the building was locked and he unlocked the door and entered the building. He quickly looked around the building but could not find anyone inside. About two minutes after he arrived, a Negro Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) Officer arrived and he let the officer into the building.
He stated he accompanied the officer while the officer searched the building, but no one could be located inside. He stated there were no signs of tampering evident to him and both he and the officer soon left and he arrived back home at approximately 2:20 a.m. Upon returning home, his wife told him the man had called back at approximately 1:56 a.m., and stated the two men had left IPS and had driven off in a bronze colored car. The man furnished a District of Columbia

[] this license plate number was registered to EDWARD MOORE CANNADY, who resided on Rhode Island Avenue, N. E. [] was advised that CANNADY's telephone number was either a private listing or it was not listed in the telephone book.

[] stated that he heard nothing mentioned around IPS the following day indicating anyone had discovered anything missing or having information concerning the alleged burglary. He stated IPS employs one person to clean the building and this individual works between 4:00 p.m., and 7:00 p.m., and is usually the last person to leave the building. However, other individuals also work late and could leave the building at any time if they had a key. He stated the front door of the building is usually locked between 5:30 and 5:45 p.m., each day unless a seminar is being held that evening, in which case the door would be left unlocked until the seminar was over. [] stated he would have no idea who would have been the last person in the building the night of the alleged burglary and that the locks on the doors are changed periodically. [] stated he believes the locks were last changed approximately one year ago. [] stated that it could be possible that one of the IPS Fellows may have returned to the building but he doubts this since he did not hear anything to this effect at IPS the day after the alleged burglary. He also stated the Fellows usually do not wear business suits.

Inspector [redacted] Intelligence Division, Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), advised his office had received a letter addressed to Chief of Police JERRY V. WILSON, from MITCHELL ROGOVIN of the law firm Arnold and Porter, with regard to the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. (WDC). [redacted] advised that in response to this letter, Chief WILSON in his reply to ROGOVIN requested a list of those individuals employed by or associated with IPS who were allegedly surveilled. This letter also advised IPS that the MPD had no interest in IPS. [redacted] advised that a copy of Chief WILSON's letter was forwarded to Acting Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation, WILLIAM D. RUCKELSHAUS.

With regard to the alleged burglary of IPS on May 24, 1973, Inspector [redacted] advised Officer [redacted] and Officer [redacted] of the Third District, responded to the IPS Building, checked the premises and could locate no indication of a break-in. Inspector [redacted] stated he believed these officers may have located one unlocked door, but there was no evidence this door had been tampered with. He stated that in view of the fact the allegation of a burglary was unsubstantiated, no report was necessary and no report was filled out or submitted [redacted] [redacted] advised that the Intelligence Division placed a lookout with MPD Communications to have all MPD Units be on the lookout for a bronze colored vehicle bearing District of Columbia license number 774-443. Any unit locating this vehicle was advised to ascertain the identity of the occupant or occupants and furnish this information to the Intelligence Division. Inspector [redacted] stated no response has been received by the Intelligence Division regarding this license plate number.

CANNADY was interviewed by the Intelligence Division and advised that although his registration card indicated he was issued District of Columbia license tags 774-443, these were not the tags on his vehicle and he had returned them to the Department of Motor Vehicles. Investigation by the Intelligence Division at the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) reflected on January 7, 1972, District of Columbia Tags 774-443 were returned to the DMV and canceled out. The records indicated on August 18, 1972, CANNADY received a change of tags from 774-443 to District of Columbia tags 914-524.

Inspector [] advised he had no information concerning the alleged burglary of the IPS Building on May 24, 1973, and had no idea who may have committed this alleged burglary.

[redacted] stated he had no particular concern concerning this telephone call, but inasmuch as his wife was worried, he had come to the IPS Building to check and make sure no one had broken in. [redacted] stated he had quickly checked the first and second floors of the building, but could not locate any one. [redacted] then accompanied [redacted] as they rechecked the first and second floors and the rest of the premises. [redacted] stated all lights in the building except some on the first and second floors were turned off when he arrived and as they searched the building, [redacted] turned additional lights on. [redacted] stated they did locate one window on the second floor of the building which was opened about six inches, but he did not believe anyone could get in or out of this window as there was no ladder or fire escape nearby. [redacted] stated he did not observe any sign of forceable entry on any doors or windows in the building. [redacted] then left the building at the same time and [redacted] relocked the front door.

EDWARD MOORE CANNADY, employed as a clerk at Hues Hardware Store, 2062, Rhode Island Avenue, N. E., was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents, and that they wished to talk with him concerning District of Columbia license number 774-443, which is registered in his name. CANNADY advised that he believed he received this registration in July, 1968, when he purchased a 1957 Cadillac. He stated that in April, 1971, he purchased an avocado colored Ford Galaxie and transferred the license plates from the Cadillac to the Ford. In January, 1972, he was involved in a minor accident and while reviewing forms that had been filled out in connection with this accident, he discovered that his license plate number was listed as 774-433. He stated he then checked his registration certificate and determined the certificate indicated his tag number as 774-443. After discovering the difference in his actual license tag number and the number listed on the registration certificate, CANNADY removed these license plates from his vehicle and took them to the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV), where he turned them in and was issued license tag 914-524.

CANNADY stated that during the summer of 1972, he received a traffic violation notice for no parking any time in front of 300 Indiana Avenue, N. W., which indicated a parking ticket was issued to District of Columbia license tag number 774-443. CANNADY stated he paid this parking ticket because he felt it would be too much trouble to go to the District of Columbia Corporation Council Office to prove this parking ticket was not issued to a vehicle owned or operated by him. He stated he subsequently received another traffic violation notice indicating a parking ticket was issued to District of Columbia license number 774-443 for a parking violation on Connecticut Avenue, N. W. He stated he also paid this traffic ticket even though he was sure it was not issued to any vehicle owned or operated by him.

[redacted] was furnished a form captioned "Interrogation: Advice of Rights", which he read, stated he understood and signed the waiver of rights. [redacted] voluntarily furnished the following information:

[redacted] advised he has previously been contacted by the MPD Intelligence Unit concerning an alleged burglary in the 1500 block of New Hampshire Avenue, N.W. but he did not know that the actual address was that of IPS. He stated at that time, he reviewed his run sheets for May 24, 1973, but could not locate any call identical with this address and does not recall conducting any investigation at that location, even though the name IPS seems familiar to him.

[redacted] stated that on May 24, 1973, the vehicle he used was cruiser 737 which is a gold 1970 Ford bearing D.C. tags 744-443. He stated he left Third District Detectives probably around 1:00 [redacted] but he does not recall if they left in the same cruiser or separate cruisers. He stated he most likely proceeded to the Dupont Plaza Hotel, 1500 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., which is usually his first stop whenever he works the midnight shift. He stated the Dupont Plaza is the place he goes for coffee whenever he works midnight. Also, he is investigating a burglary at the Dupont Plaza which occurred in early May, 1973, in which he is keeping an eye on one of the night clerks. He stated that he either parks in front of the Dupont Plaza or in the taxi stand immediately north of the hotel.

[redacted] the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C., which is currently the subject of an IS - Revolutionary Activities investigation in the Washington Field Office (WFO) and supervised at the Bureau by the Intelligence Division (Bufile 100-447935). IPS has been described as the "think factory" for the New Left which has helped train extremists who incite violence and whose research serves as cover-up for intrigue and political agitation. It exerts considerable influence through contacts with educators, Congress and labor (100-454040-10). Bufiles also

By letter 5/25/73, Mitchell Rogovin, who identified himself as Counsel for IPS, complained to the Bureau about an attempted burglary at IPS possibly perpetrated by "plainclothesmen." He requested FBI investigation of what he calls a pattern of illegal surveillance by Federal and local law enforcement agencies over a period of four years, including illegal entry, which violated his clients' Civil Rights. Rogovin is former Chief Counsel for IRS, Assistant Attorney General of the Tax Division; now associated with firm of Arnold and Porter, Washington, D. C.

Pursuant to his complaint, [redacted] were interviewed by WFO on 6/20/73. [redacted] specifically complained regarding their receipt of an anonymous telephone call at 1:30 a.m., 5/24/73, advising that two persons, who looked like detectives, had entered the IPS building. They were driving a car with D. C. plate 774-443. [redacted] reported this to the police as a possible robbery. Our inquiries indicated no evidence of break-in and no IPS employees reported anything missing. D. C. plate 774-443 determined to be on a gold colored police cruiser which regularly parks near IPS for other reasons. The officer using this car denied entering the IPS and suspects someone may have tried to "set-up" the police. No indications of a Civil Rights violation developed involving the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD);

In connection with the [REDACTED] interviews by WFO, Rogovin elaborated on the alleged illegal surveillances and other actions against IPS by the MPD and FBI. He named two WFO Agents as being involved in the illegal taking of documents from IPS by an alleged MPD employee and of the use of a "boom mike" to record conversations in the vicinity of IPS. Rogovin stated if the FBI does not conduct an investigation into this matter, that IPS will consider filing a civil suit and request full disclosure of FBI records.

WFO has submitted FD-302s reporting information from three Agents involved in the IPS investigation in which they deny operating a boom mike near IPS and state no burglaries were ever committed. FD-302s do report regarding certain dates when a lookout was maintained on IPS and other information concerning contact with a possible informant who was involved with IPS.

on 6/25
By letter 6/25/73, to Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Division (CRD) of the Department, Rogovin reported his interview by WFO and reiterated allegations of "illegal surveillance" of IPS by FBI and MPD. He referred to this activity as "possible wrong-doing" by two WFO Agents and stated he had a reluctance to give the information to the interviewing Agents as it would lead to a "possible cover-up." The CRD advised it intends to confer with Rogovin about his clients' complaint.

The MPD has written Rogovin it has no interest in IPS and requested the names of those persons allegedly surveilled. MPD advised WFO it developed no information that a burglary had been committed on 5/24/73.

OBSERVATIONS: In view of the nature of allegations already made by Rogovin and his threat to file suit against the Bureau, it is felt no useful purpose would be served in further pursuing the matter with him. WFO has observed that Rogovin's allegations may be provocative actions in effort to gain access to FBI files. Investigation has developed no possible Civil Rights violation by the MPD.

ACTION: Since inquiry developed no indication of a Civil Rights violation by the MPD; and as the other allegations relate to our Agents handling the IPS investigation, the material from WFO is being forwarded to the Intelligence Division for its review; after which the results will be furnished the Civil Rights Division and no further inquiry of a Civil Rights nature will be conducted.

ADDENDUM: INTELLIGENCE DIVISION (INTD), 7/23/73, RLS:mcm

~~SECRET~~

A review of attached information discloses two areas of complaint by Rogovin as attorney for IPS. First, he alleges that two "detectives" improperly entered IPS space at about 1:00 am, 5/24/73. Investigation discloses the officers routinely park in that area at that time to obtain coffee from the nearby Dupont Plaza and they deny any such entry. It is significant the basis for Rogovin's allegation is an alleged anonymous telephone call.

Second, he alleges that IPS has been illegally surveilled by Federal and local law enforcement agencies including, but not limited to, electronic surveillance and breaking and entering. WFO Agents detail handling of a former informant against IPS but differ with Rogovin's account of facts as Rogovin claims a person gave him, whom he has not identified (undoubtedly the former informant). Two Agents referred to by Rogovin in connection with the above informant, flatly deny knowledge of an electronic surveillance or burglaries of IPS or anyone associated with IPS. A third WFO Agent details lookout coverage of IPS from 10/70 to 3/71 and again from 7/71 through 10/71. He states no boom mike was ever used as alleged by Rogovin and no operations were conducted from Sulgrave Club as alleged by Rogovin. He also flatly states no burglaries were committed.

It is noted former Acting Director Ruckelshaus advised Rogovin by letter dated 6/7/73 that [redacted] would be interviewed (done); results of interviews and inquiries conducted to be furnished U.S. Department of Justice (USDJ) for a determination as to whether any possible violation of Federal laws exists and that electronic surveillances by Federal agencies are within the purview of USDJ and he should direct his inquiries to USDJ regarding this. Further, Assistant Attorney General (AAG), Civil Rights Division (CRD), has advised he intends to confer with Rogovin about his clients' complaint. CRD also requested copy of whatever investigation was conducted as a result of Rogovin's letter. b6 b7C

- INTD concurs with WFO's observation that Rogovin's allegations may be provocative actions in an attempt to gain access to FBI files. INTD also believes that because of Rogovin's language indicating lack of confidence in the FBI to impartially resolve the matter, reference to "cover up" and possible civil suit, coupled with the fact the allegations arise from a matter under investigation by INTD, the civil rights investigation should be handled right down the line in accordance with existing procedures for these investigations.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. Results of investigation be furnished CRD, USDJ, by General Investigative Division as recommended.

2. In view of INTD handling investigations of alleged burglaries requested by Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox, INTD will advise him separately of Rogovin's allegations.

It is noted former Acting Director Ruckelshaus advised Rogovin by letter dated 6/7/73 that [redacted] would be interviewed (done); results of interviews and inquiries conducted to be furnished U.S. Department of Justice (USDJ) for a determination as to whether any possible violation of Federal laws exists and that electronic surveillances by Federal agencies are within the purview of USDJ and he should direct his inquiries to USDJ regarding this. Further, Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Division (CRD), has advised he intends to confer with Rogovin about his clients' complaint. CRD also requested copy of whatever investigation was conducted as a result of Rogovin's letter.

On 7/25/73 the results of the interviews and inquiries conducted to date were furnished to CRD, USDJ.

OBSERVATIONS:

The Intelligence Division (INTD) concurs with WFO's observation that Rogovin's allegations may be provocative actions in an attempt to gain access to FBI files. INTD also believes that because of Rogovin's language indicating lack of confidence in the FBI to impartially resolve the matter, reference to "cover up" and possible civil suit, coupled with the fact the allegations arise from a matter under investigation by INTD, the civil rights investigation should be handled right down the line in accordance with existing procedures for these investigations.

In view of INTD handling investigations of alleged burglaries requested by Special Prosecutor Cox, it is believed the material from WFO relating to captioned matter should be furnished to Mr. Cox.

Item No. 2 in the Department's letter dated 10/17/73 was discussed with the Civil Rights Division on 10/31/73 and this request has been modified. The Department requests a listing of reports and letterhead memoranda previously furnished to the Department relating to investigation of the Institute for Policy Studies.

Accordingly, WFO review your files and advise the Bureau, Attention Intelligence Division, of the identity of all reports and memoranda submitted concerning IPS. This listing should set forth with respect to reports, captions, dates, and names of reporting Agents and with respect to LHMs, dates, and captions. Intelligence Division will then determine which reports and other memoranda have been disseminated to the Department in order that Civil Rights Division may be advised.

NOTE: This matter involves a request for limited investigation received from the Civil Rights Division with respect to an allegation by the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS) and its [redacted] that IPS has been the victim of illegal electronic surveillance and breaking and entering by Federal and local law enforcement. WFO has previously submitted memoranda from three Agents involved in the IPS investigation denying allegations of electronic surveillance and break-ins. Item No. 2 referred to herein was a request by the Civil Rights Division that we provide a copy of all records and reports pertaining to surveillance of IPS for the period of 1/1/71 to the present.

On 10/31/73 this request discussed with [redacted] the Civil Rights Division at which time it was pointed out [redacted] that results of investigation of IPS have been furnished to the Department by the Intelligence Division and should be available for the Civil Rights Division's review. [redacted] requested that the Civil Rights Division be furnished a complete listing of all reports and memoranda previously disseminated to the Department regarding IPS in lieu of furnishing all records and reports of WFO as requested under Item No. 2.

[redacted] the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), Washington, D. C., which is currently the subject of an Internal Security investigation in the Washington Field Office (WFO). Mitchell Rogovin, IPS Attorney of Arnold and Porter, Washington, D.C., has previously complained to the Bureau regarding alleged illegal electronic surveillance and breaking and entering on the premises of IPS by Federal and local law enforcement.

[redacted] was interviewed 6/20/73, and specifically complained of an alleged break-in at IPS on 5/24/73, by persons who "looked like detectives." Our inquiries failed to develop any indication of the break-in and results of our limited investigation were furnished the Civil Rights Division (CRD) along with memoranda from three FBI Agents involved in the IPS investigation denying allegations of electronic surveillance and break-ins.

CRD now requests additional investigation of the allegations made by [redacted] IPS. This is to include interviews with [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted] CRD has also requested copies of all records and reports of WFO pertaining to its surveillance of IPS from 1/1/71 to present.

Investigation requested by the CRD will be ordered.

Former Special Prosecutor Cox requested to review FBI files concerning IPS. This is being handled by the Intelligence Division which supervised the FBI investigation into activities of IPS. The determination as to which records or reports can or should be made available in this matter should be handled by the Intelligence Division.

results of interview [redacted] by report dated 11/14/73.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 11/5/731

MITCHELL ROGOVIN, Attorney, Law Firm of Arnold and Porter, 1903 N Street, N.W., was advised of the identity of [redacted] a Special Agent of Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and that the interview concerned allegations of the violation of the Civil Rights of the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W.

b7C

ROGOVIN stated that he felt that this investigation could not be adequately handled by the Justice Department, specifically the Washington Field Office (WFO), of the FBI inasmuch as the investigation is in part concerned with the activities of the WFO. For this reason, ROGOVIN stated that he has referred this matter to the Special Prosecutors Office, formerly headed by ARCHIBALD COX, and has furnished them certain material pertinent to their investigation. ROGOVIN declined to specify what material was provided to the Special Prosecutors Office.

ROGOVIN further stated that approximately three days prior to the firing of ARCHIBALD COX as Special Prosecutor, he, (ROGOVIN), and his client met with attorneys [redacted] from the Special Prosecutors Office. ROGOVIN stated that he is pleased with the vigorous attention given this matter by the Special Prosecutors Office and prefers to deal only with them at the present time. He further stated that due to the recent events in the Special Prosecutors Office, this investigation may eventually revert back to the Justice Department, however, for the present time, he would continue to deal only with the Special Prosecutors Office.

Information requested in Item Two of the Justice Departments letter was forwarded to FBI Headquarters by separate communication dated October 31, 1973.

Inspector [] Intelligence Division, Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), Washington, D.C. (WDC), was contacted by Special Agent John R. Palmer on November 1, 1973. He was advised that an investigation was being conducted at the specific request of the United States Department of Justice (USDJ), in a civil rights matter that involved the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., WDC.

b6
b7C

Inspector [] was advised that the Department of Justice had requested the FBI to provide a copy of all records and reports of the MPD pertaining to the surveillance of IPS for the period November 1, 1971, to the present.

Inspector [] noted that to produce the requested material would reveal the identities of confidential sources; violate the confidence of individuals and agencies who had provided both information and assistance; and would disclose raw unevaluated data, investigative techniques and MPD internal policy matters.

Following consultation with the Chief of Police, Inspector [] advised that if MPD records are considered necessary to the inquiry they would be produced upon the receipt of a subpoena.

Inspector [] also noted that in late October, 1973, Representative Ronald V. Dellums, California, wrote to District of Columbia Councilwoman Margarite Selson referring to recent public allegations regarding the MPD by []. Representative Dellums suggested public hearings concerning illegal tactics and activities of the MPD.

On October 31, 1973, Officer [] Third District, MPD, WDC, advised Special Agent [] this District covers the 1500 block of New Hampshire Avenue, N.W. Officer Cook could locate no record of a call or calls concerning 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., or a complainant named [] on the night of May 23 - 24, 1973.

UNKNOWN SUBJECTS;
CIVIL RIGHTS

Officer [] stated that if a cruiser had been dispatched to that address it would have been sent from the sub-station at 5th and New York Avenue, N.W. Officer [] telephoned that station, and was advised there was no record of a complainant named [] or of a cruiser being dispatched to 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., on the night of May 23-24, 1973.

b6

Officer [] also advised that if no problem was discovered at that address by any cruiser dispatched, no report would have been prepared.

On November 1, 1973, Officer [] Communications Division, MPD, advised Special Agent [] that voice tapes concerning complaint calls are destroyed after three months. He stated that the voice tapes for complaint calls received at MPD Headquarters on May 24, 1973, have been destroyed.

Officer [] made available the tape concerning the communications via radio between the Dispatcher at MPD Headquarters and the MPD Units on the street. The following messages were heard on this tape by Special Agent []

2:05 a.m. - May 24, 1973

Zone Number Two female dispatcher called to Unit Number 101 directing him to respond to a Burglary at 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., WDC, Complainant - []

Unidentified male in Unit 101 (out of Third District) advised the dispatcher that he was 10-99 (by himself - no partner).

2:28 a.m. - May 24, 1973

Unidentified male in Scout 101 to unidentified male dispatcher calling in connection with matter at 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., requested the dispatcher to "put me 10-8 to 10-80. No Burglary."

Officer [] explained that by those code numbers Scout 101 was requesting to be put back in service and stating that a citizen assisted him in his investigation to determine no burglary. [] stated that Scout 101 probably went to 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., and was met there by someone he interviewed, and who assisted him in making his determination.

b6
b7C

When interviewed by the FBI on June 21, 1973, Officer [] Badge Number [] MPD, advised he had responded to 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., on May 24, 1973, and had searched the building with [] stated that inasmuch as there was no evidence of a burglary or break-in no report was made. [] believed he was in Scout 101 or Scout 97 on May 24, 1973.

On November 1, 1973, Inspector [] Intelligence Division, MPD, advised Special Agent John R. Palmer that since the allegation of a burglary at 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., on May 24, 1973, was unsubstantiated no report was necessary, and no report was filled out or submitted.

Investigation at WDC on November 7, 1973, determined that [] currently resides at [] [] Efforts to interview [] at this address met with negative results.

It was further determined that [] is employed by []

[] An effort was made to contact [] at his place of employment, however, it was learned that he works part-time there and was not working on that day. On November 7, 1973, [] contacted the WFO of the FBI and advised that he could not consent to an interview with the FBI without first contacting his attorney.

On November 7, 1973, a man identifying himself only as [] telephonically advised the WFO of the FBI that he was an attorney and was representing [] He stated that he did not want his client interviewed by the FBI without first discussing the matter with the FBI and then he would only permit the interview to be conducted in his presence.

By memorandum 12/3/73, Watergate Special Prosecution Force (WSPF) has requested Bureau arrange for interview of Special Agents [REDACTED] of the Washington Field Office (WFO) relative to allegations made concerning them by [REDACTED]

On 12/7/73, SA [REDACTED] Intelligence Division, spoke with [REDACTED] WSPF, who prepared WSPF request. Purpose of contact was to determine whether [REDACTED] was aware of recent investigation conducted by the Bureau in captioned matter at the request of the Civil Rights Division (CRD), Department of Justice, and to ascertain, if possible, the nature of the allegations made [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] said he understood the CRD had received Bureau report in captioned matter dated 8/8/73 and that he had made some effort to contact the CRD concerning this matter but that he had never actually spoken with anyone in the CRD relative to it. He admitted he was not aware of Departmental letter dated 10/17/73 (which requested Bureau conduct additional investigation based on information contained in Bureau report 8/8/73), nor was he aware of Bureau's response to this request, contained in LHM dated 11/16/73. It was then pointed out to [REDACTED] that his request to interview the two WFO Agents involved a current, ongoing investigation being handled by the CRD, and that a review of CRD files in this matter could possibly provide him with the desired information. [REDACTED] stated that he would contact the CRD concerning this matter but that the allegations referred to in WSPF communication consisted of information [REDACTED]

[redacted] said he was aware of the FD-302's prepared by SAs [redacted] relative to their knowledge of [redacted] that he did not feel these FD-302's covered the current allegations.

At this point, [redacted] was asked point blank what these "new allegations" consisted of, and whether the CRD, which has been handling this case, was aware of them. [redacted] replied that the use of the word "allegation" in the WSPF letter had perhaps been a mistake as it was quite "strong," but that the new information centered around a claim made by [redacted] that the FBI had received stolen mail from [redacted] knowing it to be stolen. In this regard, [redacted] claims that he took mail from the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), Washington, D. C., turned it over to one of the two WFO Agents, who later returned it to [redacted] with instructions to return it to the IPS office. [redacted] stated [redacted] had furnished WSPF with additional information and allegations concerning the FBI but that after looking into [redacted] background and considering the information, that he, [redacted] did not feel that this additional information had any merit whatsoever. He said he could not, however, permit the charge of receiving stolen mail to "lay in his files," and that it was for this reason he desired to interview SAs [redacted]

It was then pointed out to Martin [redacted]

[redacted] said he was aware of this FD-302 and its contents but that he continued to feel the necessity of interviewing SAs [redacted] relative to [redacted] claim. He stated, however, that he was not in any rush to interview the Agents, since he desired to review the CRD file in this matter prior to such interview. At this point the conversation was terminated.

It should be noted that at one point during the conversation, [redacted] commented that, "It's not a place where our jurisdiction is very strong." (apparently referring to WSPF investigation of [redacted] latest allegations) but that the WSPF did have some standing in the matter since the incident "could" have arisen from pressure exerted by The White House.

NOTE: Based on Washington Field Office airtel to the Bureau dated 2/25/74, and Shackelford to Wannall memorandum dated 2/26/74. Washington Field Office airtel submitted copies of a complaint naming two Special Agents of the Washington Field Office and numerous former officials of the Bureau, the Department, and others as having placed illegal wiretaps on the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS) as well as causing the IPS building to be entered illegally. Complaint seeks damages in the sum of $100 per day during the interception and disclosure of IPS communications. Copies of serials 2 (which includes two FD-302s and one LHM), 11, 13, and 14 of Bufile 44-56700 and one copy each of a summons and a complaint were enclosed with this communication to the Department.

Reurairtels dated 2/25/74 and 2/27/74.

Washington Field Office airtel dated 2/25/74, submitted copies of a complaint filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia by captioned organization. A review of this complaint has been made by FBI Headquarters and it is believed that Special Agents [redacted] [redacted] should submit additional affidavits concerning the allegations against them in this complaint. The attention of Special Agents [redacted] is specifically directed to paragraph 33 of the complaint.

It is also believed that SAC McDermott should submit an affidavit concerning the allegation made in paragraph 23 that the FBI installed electronic listening device on IPS telephones. SAC McDermott should also comment on the allegation in paragraph 34 that employees of the FBI illegally entered the premises of IPS on several occasions, including 5/24/73 and 8/2/73.

The above should be handled promptly and your response should be directed to the attention of Office of Legal Counsel.

NOTE: Based on Bureau memorandum to the Acting Assistant Attorney General, Civil Division dated 3/8/74, concerning suit of IPS against two WFO Agents and other present and former employees of the Department, the Bureau and the Executive Branch of the Government.

The facts do differ, however, in that the time at which the alleged entry of IPS under False Pretenses to Remove Documents was stated by IPS to be November, 1971 in the Civil Rights complaint, while in this civil complaint it is alleged to have been during January or February, 1971.

WFO has reviewed the investigative efforts conducted to date concerning captioned organization and its principal leaders, and has come to the conclusion that a paucity of information exists that would support the likelihood of IPS or its leaders to be functioning in violation of Federal law. (U)

This, coupled with the following examples of IPS activity directed against the FBI and other law enforcement organizations has convinced this office that continued investigative efforts directed toward the Institute would be unlikely to develop further substantial information detailing subversion on the part of IPS, and could very likely again place the FBI into a position of attempting to prove a negative concept, i.e., the Bureau's non-involvement in any illegal activity directed against the Institute, that SAC, WFO specifically addressed himself to in referenced WFO airtel: (U)

1) WFO report of SA ROBERT W. FEUER, 3/15/73, set forth considerable information indicating IPS operates in an aura of paranoia with regard to law enforcement organizations, particularly the FBI. Their hiring the services of (U)

3) Via letter dated 5/25/73, MITCHELL ROGOVIN, an attorney affiliated with the WDC law firm of ARNOLD and PORTER alleged to former Acting FBI Director WILLIAM D. RUCKELSHAUS that "over the past four years, the Institute has been advised on a number of occasions that it has been surveilled by Federal and local law enforcement agencies including but not limited to electronic surveillance and breaking and entering." After a detailed investigation of the specific alleged incidents detailed by Mr. ROGOVIN and his clients, [redacted]

WFO could find no basis in fact to the allegations, and concluded on 7/6/73 that it was the opinion of this office that "the current allegations made by MITCHELL ROGOVIN, Attorney for IPS, may be provocative actions in an attempt to gain access to FBI files. . . ." (u)

On 2/20/74, Mr. ROGOVIN filed a civil action in U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia (number 74-316), representing his clients, the Institute for Policy Studies, Et Al, and naming as the defendants, former U.S. Attorney General JOHN N. MITCHELL, and various former and current employees of the FBI among others. The allegations set forth in this civil action were similar in scope and detail as those made in the aforementioned letter of Mr. ROGOVIN. In assessing the investigation conducted regarding the initial allegations set forth by Mr. ROGOVIN in his letter, the Bureau advised in its letter to the Department dated 3/28/74, that "no evidence was presented to substantiate their charges and none (u) has been presented in this civil action. It appears that the alleged violation of civil rights and the Institution of this civil action are nothing more than a fishing expedition to gain access to FBI files. We believe this action is without basis in fact and recommend that a motion be made for its dismissal."

Referenced Bulet, 4/19/73, focused on several facets of activity of IPS and its personnel which the Bureau suggested may involve violations of Federal statutes. All of these areas having a domestic origin have been the subject of separate investigations by this office as follows:

As the Bureau set forth in the 4/19/73 letter, it is difficult to differentiate between legal and potentially illegal activities of IPS because of the interrelated structure of its programs, and the complexity of its funding, however, there does appear that many of the Institute's activities are in the gray area of propriety, or may even be proper.

For this reason primarily, and for those reasons enumerated previously, WFO is discontinuing the investigation regarding the Institute at this time. Should information be developed by this office that suggests subversive and/or illegal involvement on the part of those organizations or individuals listed above, this information will be furnished to the Bureau under their specific organizational or individual title, and obviously, if future information comes to the attention of this office indicating an overall subversive and/or illegal activity on the part of IPS per se, the investigation re captioned organization will be reopened at that time.

DETAILS:I. CURRENT ACTIVITIES

During the month of May, 1974, eighteen confidential sources who have furnished reliable information in the past, and who are familiar with various phases of revolutionary and extremist activities in the greater Washington, D.C. (WDC) area were contacted regarding any known illegal activities allegedly committed by the Institute of Policy Studies (IPS) or its principal leaders. None of the sources furnished any information indicating illegal activities on the part of the Institute or its leaders.

On April 5, 1974, a representative of the FBI observed a flyer posted at the Community Book Store, 2028 P Street, N.W., WDC, a retail outlet for anti-establishment literature in the District of Columbia. The flyer indicated that a forum would be held at IPS on April 7, 1974, at 2:00 p.m., at which time general discussions of socialism would be the topic. All interested individuals were invited to attend.

Dear [Redacted]

This will acknowledge receipt of a copy of your letter of May 17, 1974, to Chief Jerry Wilson of the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D. C.

MAILED 20
MAY 30 1974
FBI

In February, 1974, the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS) initiated a civil action in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia against former officers of the Executive Branch of the Government, the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, and two Special Agents of this Bureau alleging illegal wiretapping of the IPS telephones and illegal breaking and entering of the IPS premises. The Department of Justice has filed an answer to the IPS complaint denying the allegations.

I would like to point out, however, that the "Washington Post" article cited by you does not attribute the instruction to report on the number of "Jews, Germans and people of eastern European extraction" at the IPS and similar instructions to Special Agents of this Bureau. The individuals quoted in the news article said they were instructed by the FBI to be alert for a group of fugitives wanted in connection with bombings of public buildings, including the Capitol.

NATIONAL CAPITAL CHAPTER • 1522 K STREET, N.W. • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005 • (202) 872-1157

May 17, 1974

Mr. Jerry Wilson
Chief of Police
Municipal Center
300 Indiana Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Chief Wilson:

I am writing this letter on behalf of the National Capital Chapter of the American Jewish Congress. It has come to our attention, through an article published in the Washington Post on November 26, 1973 written by Paul W. Valentine (a copy of which is enclosed) that the local Police Department and the FBI have engaged certain undercover agents to infiltrate the Institute for Policy Studies. The facts reported in the article are distressing to us, and we are writing to request clarification and to ascertain under what standards the local Police Department is engaged in work of the kind described in the enclosed article.

I would hope that you would agree that surreptitious surveillance of private citizens represents a severe danger to a free society. We are unable to ascertain what was felt to be the compelling need to require such surveillance in the case of the IPS, but would like to receive from you some idea of the considerations which go into a decision to undertake surveillance of the type noted. It is also disturbing to see the apparent lack of any intelligent guidance from the Police Department to the persons hired for this work. Even if surveillance is authorized on a clear and compelling need, sanctioned by explicit laws and regulations, civil liberties and rights of free speech and association may be severely undercut by informants who lack the sophistication and intelligence to understand what it is they are observing and to evaluate it in a meaningful way. In this connection, instructions to informants to report back how many "Jews, Germans and people of eastern European extraction" were at the meetings raises disturbing questions. As reported in the article, the informant said that he "was told to look for Europeans in look and dress . . . They told me to look for certain clothing styles (and) physical appearances, like high cheek bones. High cheek bones were supposed to be German or Russian or something . . . Yes, accents, too. I was supposed to report foreign accents." He said he told police that "most people at IPS were 'Jewish'." Asked how he distinguished Jews from non-Jews, he said he could do it "vaguely," then added that his police mentors, "in a rather facetious manner, used Arthur Waskow as a comparison model."

CORRESPONDENCE

AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS

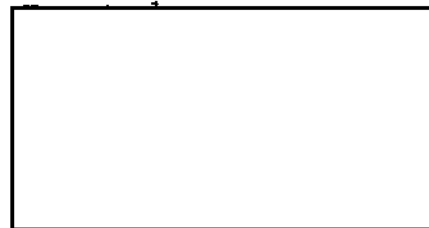

NATIONAL CAPITAL CHAPTER • 1522 K STREET, N.W. • WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005 • (202) 872-1157

We are disturbed that information gathered on such a basis may be all but useless for any serious intelligence work, has the distinct possibility of categorizing people incorrectly, and the information appears to be unrelated to any hard intelligence which may be useful to you or any other legitimate police need. Why, for instance, was it necessary to report "foreign accents" and what could be gathered from such information? The notion that Jews (or any other ethnic or religious group) could be distinguished out of a crowd of people or that it was proper to obtain such information needs a good deal of explanation. U)

Finally, we are disturbed with the use to which this information may be put after it is gathered. Are persons with beards and accents forever typecast in some government portfolio, and on what basis could it be justifiably said that it was necessary to even keep such information in government files?

While it has been some time since this article reported the practice of the Police Department and the FBI in the early 1970's, the civil and religious liberties implications are thought by us to be of serious import. I would hope that you would give this matter your earliest attention. Our organization would particularly like to know the statutory basis for such activities, the Police Department rules governing the activity, the standards by which undercover agents are instructed, and the use to which their feed-back is put by the government thereafter.

My thanks for your early attention to this matter.

All of this by way of bringing you up to date. (

Thanks for the clipping on [redacted] It is fascinating, in a blood-chilling way. I have a feeling we might find ourselves on opposite sides of the barricades.

In the fall the latest book I have been working on (with three others) will come out. I will try to send you a notice or a copy.

The next time I am in California (my trips usually come up very suddenly, although I average a 100,000 miles a year) I will look forward to seeing you. I always stay with some very good friends in Santa Monica-Venice.

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 74-316

FILED

OCT 3 1979

STIPULATED SETTLEMENT OF ISSUES AND DISMISSAL

JAMES F. DAVEY, Clerk

The plaintiffs, through their counsel, and defendants John N. Mitchell, John D. Ehrlichman, Robert C. Mardian, Terry T. O'Connor, William T. Tucker, Charles M. Sawyer, Robert E. Yates, Robert W. Feuer and William H. Webster, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, through their counsel, have agreed to settle this civil action without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law as follows:

1. Defendant William H. Webster, in his capacity as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, his successors in office, and his agents and employees agree that they will undertake no investigation of plaintiffs unless in accordance with statute, executive order, or other lawful authority.

2. The process of investigation, as referred to herein, includes, but is not necessarily limited to, any or all of the following investigative techniques:

- (a) electronic surveillance;
- (b) physical surveillance, including photographic surveillance;
- (c) recruitment or placement of informants;
- (d) search or seizure of plaintiffs' real or personal property;
- (e) mail covers as well as other techniques involving searching and examining mail;

b6
b7C

(f) interviews of persons having, or thought to have, knowledge of a subject's activities and associations;

(g) trash covers.

3. The Federal Bureau of Investigation shall not collect, gather, index, file, maintain, store or disseminate any information regarding the plaintiffs, their associations, speech or activities except in accordance with Federal statute, executive order or regulation in connection with the authorized investigative or administrative functions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

4. Nothing in the foregoing paragraphs shall be construed to limit or restrict plaintiffs' rights under the United States Constitution and Federal law and nothing therein shall allow the Federal Bureau of Investigation to conduct any investigations of plaintiffs not otherwise in accordance with the Constitution or Federal law or applicable internal regulations.

5. With regard to Federal Bureau of Investigation Headquarters and field office files pertaining to investigations of the plaintiffs conducted prior to March, 1974, no information contained therein which relates to the plaintiffs' exercise of rights guaranteed under the First Amendment to the Constitution shall be used or disseminated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to any private citizen, the public, or any state, Federal or local agency except for the following purposes:

- 1) To respond to discovery demands in litigation pursuant to the federal rules of criminal or civil procedure or to respond to subpoenas or other demands of a state court or other authority;
- 2) To respond to requests under the Freedom of Information Act or the Privacy Act;
- 3) In connection with personnel investigations, such as of Federal employees, applicants for Federal employment, or for security clearances, which the Federal Bureau of Investigation is required to conduct pursuant to statute, executive order or other lawful authority;
- 4) In connection with an authorized foreign intelligence or law enforcement activity; provided, however, that prior to any such use or dissemination the concurrence of Legal Counsel Division must be obtained.

6. A copy of this Stipulated Settlement Of Issues And Dismissal shall be filed and permanently retained as the top serial in each file section or volume of each Headquarters and field office file pertaining to plaintiffs.

7. Unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, the files referred to in Paragraphs 5 and 6 above will be subject to disposition in accordance with the provisions of Title 44, United States Code, Chapter 33, and implementing regulations.

8. Costs are to be awarded in favor of plaintiffs, who shall submit an accounting of taxable costs to the Department of Justice.

9. Plaintiffs withdraw all demands for relief set forth in the presently pending Amended Complaint in this action and agree to the dismissal from this suit of defendants John N. Mitchell, John D. Ehrlichman, Robert C. Mardian, Terry T. O'Connor, William T. Tucker, Charles M. Sawyer, Robert E. Yates and Robert W. Feuer.

10. In agreeing to this Stipulation neither plaintiffs nor defendants retract or abandon the positions they, or any of them, have stated in the pleadings and papers herein concerning the constitutionality of the conduct alleged in plaintiffs' complaint. The parties recognize that these issues are contested, and they enter into this Stipulation as a settlement of contested claims and without making any admissions concerning any of said claims.

11. In consideration of the foregoing, plaintiffs and the aforesaid defendants stipulate and agree, by their undersigned counsel, to dismiss this civil action with prejudice as against those defendants.

Re telcall to the Bureau, 4/10/75.

On 4/10/75 [redacted] (NA)

Internal Affairs Division (IAD), Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), Washington, D. C. (WDC) telephonically contacted SA [redacted] and advised that his unit was conducting an investigation regarding allegations against officers of the MPD by one [redacted]. The investigation is specifically concerned with whether or not the MPD officers had engaged in the activities alleged by [redacted] and in doing so had committed any violations of the District of Columbia Code.

The first allegation is that [redacted] stole mail from the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), WDC, gave this mail to Agents of the Washington Field Office, FBI, and then had the mail returned to him. [redacted] stated that he had then given these materials to [redacted] (NA), then of the Intelligence Division of the MPD and now assigned elsewhere within the MPD, who had destroyed them. This allegation would also involve another officer [redacted] then working undercover.

With respect to the first allegation, SAs [] [] are among the defendants in a civil suit brought by IPS and individuals associated with IPS. One of the allegations in this suit is based on a statement by [] that he had stolen mail from IPS at the request of SA [] that the materials he had stolen were turned over to SA [] and then returned to him. He stated that he had then turned the materials over to [] who had destroyed them.

SAs [] have responded with affidavits in denying the allegations made by [] in regard to this alleged incident. Numerous communications have been received by the Bureau from WFO regarding this matter under instant caption.

SAs [] have no knowledge concerning the alleged entry of the bookstore.

[] advised that statements have been taken from those concerned with these allegations and that it is contemplated that [] will be called to testify before a Grand Jury in WDC.

It is recommended that SAs [] discuss these matters with the IAD, MPD, WDC, in that such a discussion would materially aid in its investigation.

Informant A Says Police Urged Theft

By Paul W. Valentine and Lee A. Daniels
Washington Post Staff Writers

A former D.C. police informant contended yesterday that he was instructed by his supervisor to steal mail, break into buildings and disrupt legitimate demonstrations of the antiwar movement here in the early 1970s.

His assertion contrasts with those in a D.C. police department report released Wednesday that said informants "were instructed to engage in no illegal activities" and no such activity is known to have occurred.

The informant, Earl Robert Merritt, 30, says he was a $50-to-$75-a-week "special employee" of the police department's intelligence division and infiltrated antiwar groups from 1970 through 1972.

In addition to monitoring and reporting routine activities of antiwar groups and individuals, Merritt told a reporter that on instructions from police, he:

- Broke into the Community Bookshop, formerly at 2028 P. St., NW, in May 1971, and stole a quantity of antiwar petitions containing names and addresses of activists and supporters.

- Stole a paper bag filled with mail from the Institute for Policy Studies, an independent public policy research center that has attracted a number of leftist scholars.

- Helped disrupt several street demonstrations by giving protesters false information about times and locations of rallies. He also yanked out the wires and tubes from two sound systems at the Mayday encampment in West Potomac Park in early May, 1971, he said.

Police Chief Marvin J. Cullinane said he could not be reached yesterday, and Asst. Chief Theodore Zanders, who has headed a recent house cleaning of intelligence division records, refused to comment.

Merritt, who "went public" in mid-1973 and has spoken previously about his undercover activity, has been confirmed by police officials as a one-time informant.

Zanders said he did not want to comment on Merritt's present claims because of pending litigation between the police department and the Institute for Policy Studies.

The Institute last year sued two FBI agents, former Attorney General John N. Mitchell and "unknown" employees of the D.C. police department for alleged illegal infiltration of the institute. Merritt is a key witness in the litigation.

Police officials including Zanders and Cullinane generally have declined to elaborate on an extensive report issued by the department Wednesday on activities of the intelligence division from 1967 to the present.

The report described in general terms undercover operations by both police officers and paid civilian informants and included acknowledgments that police borrowed electronic equipment, cars and men from the Central Intelligence Agency on some occasions.

In one of his few detailed discussions of the report, Zanders described how three police officers who were enrolled in local colleges conducted surveillance of campus antiwar activity.

He stressed that the officers already had independently decided to enroll as full-time students and entered through the regular admissions process when the police department asked them also to monitor antiwar groups. Zanders did not specify which universities they attended.

Zanders said the officers received credit for the courses taken, were paid regular salaries while attending school and had their tuition paid from the department's confidential fund.

Officials of area universities contacted said they did not know whether undercover police officers had operated on their campuses.

The officials said they were not approached by anyone from the Washington police department regarding such placements.

William Ahlstrom, an American University vice president, said, "We weren't approached, and we wouldn't have approved such an operation if we were. It would be antithetical to the spirit of the university and of a free society."

Ahlstrom added, however, that it would probably be impossible to determine whether undercover agents did operate on the campus because of the fluid nature of the university community.

By request, [redacted] called on Congressman Dale Milford of Texas, a Member of the House Select Committee on Intelligence Activities, shortly before 10 a.m. on 8-5-75. The Congressman furnished the enclosed document which he said had been furnished to him on 8-4-75. He said he had read it that evening and was concerned some of the information contained therein might be classified based on classified information. He said the document, which he described as a very detailed questionnaire regarding intelligence activities, undoubtedly was prepared by someone with a good knowledge of intelligence organizations in this country. He noted the document shows on its last page that it apparently was prepared by the National Security Study Group, Institute for Policy Studies, 1901 Q Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C. He stated he had never heard of this organization. The Congressman was furnished a brief description of this organization based on public source material. Congressman Milford said he had not supplied a copy of this document to [redacted] and had no objections to our furnishing them a copy. A copy of the document has been forwarded to [redacted] through the Senstudy Project Personnel of the Intelligence Division.

During the brief conversation with Congressman Milford--he was rushing to attend a meeting of the House Select Committee on Intelligence Activities--he expressed grave concern over damage being done to the intelligence community by the demands growing out of some of the inquiries by various committees. Rockefeller Seen Chafing in Harness

By Jack Anderson
and Les Whitten

The outwardly ebullient Nelson A. Rockefeller, according to close friends, is suffering from the vice-presidential blues.

This is a malady which afflicts normal, healthy politicians who wind up in the void of the vice presidency.

Theirs is not the ennobling power to shape bold national policies or the awesome authority to make great decisions. It is their unhappy fate to wait in the White House wings for a tragedy they pray will never happen.

Woodrow Wilson's running mate, Thomas Marshall, described the malady best. The Vice President, he said, "is like a man in a cataleptic state. He cannot speak, he cannot move, he suffers no pain. And yet he is conscious of all that goes on around him."

Vice President Rockefeller apparently has come down with this occupational disease. He tries not to show it, his friends say, but down deep, he is frustrated.

Rockefeller, who, as accustomed to exercising power, now occupies a position without power. Friends say he is chafing over his now political impotence.

The friends agree that Rockefeller also has a combative, competitive streak. He became rankled, for example, over some recent cracks attributed to President Ford's campaign manager, Howard H. (Bo) Callaway.

Rockefeller had agreed it would be good political strategy to keep the vice-presidential nomination open. But Callaway was quoted in the newspapers as calling Rockefeller a problem and hinting he might be dumped.

"This got Rocky's dander up. It started his 'adrenalin flowing,'" reported one intimate.

The Vice President put through a call to Callaway and told him coldly that his newspaper statements "had gone way beyond" the agreed strategy. Callaway protested that he had been misquoted and invited him to check with former White House aide Bill Timmons, who had been present at the press session.

"I don't have to ask Timmons. I am talking to you," snapped Rockefeller.

He also protested to White House staff chief Donald Rumsfeld and finally to the President. Mr. Ford not only reaffirmed his support of Rockefeller but suggested that they fly in a helicopter to the airport together to dramatize it.

The Secret Service cautioned against it, pointing out that the President and Vice President aren't supposed to fly together. But Mr. Ford overruled the Secret Service, and Rockefeller accompanied the President to the airport for the Helsinki departure ceremony.

The little triumph, according to friends, buoyed Rockefeller's spirit.

Footnote: A spokesman acknowledged that the Vice President has his "ups and downs" but denied that he is depressed over his job. On the contrary, the spokesman claimed Rockefeller was enthusiastic. "I'm having a ball," the Vice President recently told an interviewer. It is Rockefeller's nature, explained a friend, to maintain a cheerful front.

Pentagon Parling: Some 47 liberals in Congress, who have their own ideas of how to slash government spending, asked the like-minded Institute for Policy Studies to review President Ford's budget.

The six-month study won't be submitted to Congress until next month, but we have obtained an advance draft.

It calls for a severe $40 billion reduction in defense spending. Institute Director Mark Raskin explained: "The presence of troops in a country is a sign of weakness. It shows that we have

Other way of influencing countries. Something is wrong when we spend $1.6 trillion since 1945 on the military."

What would such a drastic military cut mean? States the study: "It would mean no American forces or bases west of Guam. It would mean no military assistance to Asian clients.
It would mean phasing out all military alliances and defense commitments—to be replaced, in some cases, with nonmilitary treaties establishing various forms of cooperation and formulas of mutual trust.

"It would mean the end of declaratory statements of policy that commit us to intervention or the threat of intervention in the defense of asserted interests in East Asia."

In short, the study contends that the massive military reductions would change our foreign policy "to more self-restraint," which would help "shed America's global pretensions."

As for America's allies, the study suggests: "They must be self-sufficient and must consequently be allowed to operate independently in their foreign policies even to the point of accommodating the present adversaries of the United States."

Proponents describe the institute's solution as "sanity"; critics call it "surrender."

'60s Activists, Now Elected Officials, Will Gather Here

By DAVE WAGNER

Of The Capital Times Staff

A nationwide conference of "elected state and municipal officials who share a populist or radical outlook" will be held here from June 13-15 at the Wisconsin Center.

Sponsored by the Institute for Policy Studies in Washington "in cooperation with" Mayor Paul Soglin's office and the University of Wisconsin Extension's Institute for Governmental Affairs, the conference is expected to draw more than 150 persons who made their reputations as activists in the 1960s and who now hold positions of power at the state or local levels.

Among the 35 speakers and panel members at the conference will be Mayor Soglin; Sam Brown, treasurer of Colorado; Mayor Jeff Friedman of Austin, Tex.; Judge Justin Ravitz of Detroit, and Robert Williams, a member of the Legislative Assembly in British Columbia and a leader in Canada's New Democratic Party. Georgia legislator Julian Bond has been tentatively scheduled to appear as a panelist.

Julian Bond

The "Conference on Alternative State and Local Public Policies," as it is called, is believed to be the first national gathering of "populist or radical" officials held outside the Democratic Party since the late 1940s. Most of the participants were active in the coalition of anti-war and civil rights groups that gradually dissolved a few years ago, and organizers of the event speak with varying shades of optimism about the principle that characterizes the early stages of that coalition.

Derek Shearer, a California official who acted as one of the meeting's advance men, told The Capital Times Thursday that the conference "is very much in the tradition of the movement before the Vietnam war. We're going back to where the movement started; we were interrupted by the war." Shearer, a special consultant to California's Director of Employment who attained some prominence on the left as a writer for Ramparts magazine during the war years, said he has "modest hopes" for the organization which is planned to come out of the conference.

"We don't expect a new party or even a caucus to come out of this," he said, adding that he hoped an organization "similar to the National Conference of Mayors" would be formed with the qualification that it would not confine itself to seeking federal funding to meet local problems. "It would be more of a pool or policy assistance."

Mayor Soglin also drew a comparison between the aims of the conference and the early days of the movement. "I can see some kind of a statement, perhaps not a definitive statement, but something concrete on the future that will compare with the Port Huron Statement in significance, if not in content." Port Huron, Mich., was the site of the founding convention of Students for a Democratic Society in 1962; the convention's concluding statement is widely regarded as the first manifesto of what eventually became the New Left.

The difference between this and other attempts to reconstruct the movement, Soglin said, is that its aims will be kept concrete by focusing on approaches to municipal and state financing that avoid the issuing of bonds, on the public ownership of utilities, public control of land use and housing, and a variety of other matters that "directly affect peoples' daily lives. By definition there won't be a lot of time spent on theory," Soglin added. "I don't think it will be a blue-sky, abstract tent meeting."

Both Soglin and Shearer emphasized the attention questions of public financing will receive at the conference. Each mentioned, independently of the other, a widespread interest in the old populist plan for developing state banks as a way of keeping a yardstick on the banking industry. "In Shearer's phrase, and of providing low-interest loans to farmers and others during difficult times."

By coincidence, the local conference will be held on the same weekend as the annual Wisconsin Democratic Party Convention, a coincidence some local officials see as significant. "A lot of people will see this conference as a direct challenge to the left wing of the Democratic Party," observed James Rowen, assistant to the mayor. "There are probably a lot of people here locally who would like to go to the state Democratic Convention and this conference as well, and they'll have to make that political decision. That kind of tension is going to start here before it starts anywhere else."

Phil Ball, committee coordinator for the mayor's office, was critical of the aura of caution surrounding the meeting. "There is a caution that goes with electoral success and this question of what's going to come out of the conference starts in the middle of the Democratic left. Most of the people who are coming to this thing are not where they are because they were cautious. It's a time for getting on."

If the meeting will be attended by, in both Rowen's and Shearer's words, "the pragmatic left," perhaps nothing symbolizes that shift within the movement from international concerns to nuts-and-bolts local politics better than the fact that Tom Hayden will be attending the conference neither as a speaker nor a panelist but as a member of the audience. Shearer, who is actively supporting Hayden's announced candidacy for the California seat in the U.S. Senate, explained that Hayden will not speak officially "because he has no specific expertise" in the questions before the conference.

Along with the mayor and Phil Ball, a number of other local officials will be panelists at the gathering, among them 13th District Ald. Michael Sack, President of the Police and Fire Commission Mel Greenberg, Lea Zeldin of the Board of Health, and Hal Levy of the City Planning Department.

CIA Bares New Aspect Of Data Use

By Timothy S. Robinson
 Washington Post Staff Writer

The Central Intelligence Agency shared information with the FBI that it had received about an American citizen from a wiretap conducted by a foreign source, according to court records.

The admission by the CIA is the first public disclosure that the agency shares electronic surveillance information that it receives from foreign countries about Americans, according to several attorneys. The foreign intelligence agency previously was known to share with the FBI information gathered abroad by its own agents and sources.

The CIA did not originally disclose even to the FBI that the information was obtained by a foreign government's wiretap, a procedure some attorneys described as "potentially deceitful." They said this might be so because in such situations Justice Department attorneys can tell courts they have no wiretap information about an individual when they actually have unwittingly received such information from the CIA.

Former CIA counterintelligence chief James Angleton testified before Congress earlier this year that "any information the CIA has on a U.S. citizen is passed on to the FBI on a daily basis. It's up to the FBI to determine if it is necessary."

In American federal courts the existence of wiretap information generally must be disclosed upon request so the legality of the tap can be determined. If the Justice Department says it has no such information, the inquiry ends in most cases.

Although the CIA disclosure was filed publicly here this week, the director of the Central Intelligence Agency filed details about the incident under seal with U.S. District Judge Howard E. Corcoran and filed a claim of "secrets of state" privilege in an attempt to halt disclosure of those details.

None of those details could be learned yesterday, such where and when the tap occurred, who the U.S. citizen was or why his telephone lines were tapped or what branch of what foreign government conducted the taps.

The suit, which elicited the disclosure, was filed last year by the Institute for Policy Studies, a public affairs "think-tank," and three of its leaders, Marcus Raskin, Richard Barnett and Ralph Stavins. The suit charges several former top government officials but not the CIA with illegally tapping the telephones of the plaintiffs and the group.

The government has already admitted overhearing the plaintiffs on two different categories of FBI wiretaps, both of which the government claims are legal.

INSTITUTE FOR POLICY STUDIES (IPS) INTERNAL SECURITY
INFORMATION MEMORANDUM

On August 5, 1975, Congressman Dale Milford, a member of the House Select Committee on Intelligence Activities, furnished to this Bureau a document, a copy of which is attached, described by him as a very detailed questionnaire regarding U. S. intelligence activities. He advised he had received the document on August 4, 1975, but he did not indicate the manner in which he had received the document. He advised that the document was apparently prepared by the National Security Study Group, Institute for Policy Studies, 1901 Q Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C. Congressman Milford expressed concern that some of the information in the document might be classified or based on classified information. He also expressed grave concern over the damage being done to the intelligence community by the demands growing out of some of the inquiries by various committees.

For your information, reports and other communications setting forth the background and activities of IPS have previously been furnished to the Department during the past several years. In addition, IPS is one of the plaintiffs in a pending civil action entitled "Institute for Policy Studies et al v. John N. Mitchell et al," number 74-316, filed in U. S. District Court of the District of Columbia on February 20, 1974, wherein the defendants, some of whom are present and former employees of the Department of Justice, are accused of electronic surveillance of IPS and illegal entry. The allegations of electronic surveillance and illegal entry on the part of the defendants have been denied in the suit.

[redacted] interviewed in the presence of her Attorney, [redacted] of the law firm, [redacted] was advised of the identities of [redacted] and [redacted] as Special Agents of the FBI and that the interview concerned the alleged burglary of the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), 1520 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), on the evening of May 24, 1973. [redacted] voluntarily furnished the following information:

[redacted] advised that at approximately 1:30 a.m. on May 24, 1973, she was awakened by her telephone ringing. She answered the telephone and a man asked if she was [redacted] and when she stated she was, he stated he was sorry to bother her so late at night, but he was a friend of the Institute. He stated he had just been at the building and two men had gotten out of their car and entered the Institute. He stated all the lights were on in the building. [redacted] asked if he thought they were robbing the Institute and the man stated he did not know. [redacted] stated she should probably call the police and the man stated the two individuals who entered the building were in a "cruiser car" and looked like "detectives". [redacted] stated she would tell her husband and the conversation was terminated.

[redacted] stated she woke her husband and told him about this incident and then called the Dupont Circle Precinct. She was told that a "generator" was out, and had been for some time, and that the Precinct was unable to send a unit to the IPS building but they could hear the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), radio cars. She stated her husband got dressed and left for the Institute and she again called the police. At this time, she was told a car had just arrived at the station house and was being dispatched to the IPS building. [redacted] stated that she spoke to two different officers when she made the calls to the police. She stated that at approximately 1:55 a.m. the man telephonically contacted her again and stated he saw that she had sent the police. The man stated the two men had just left and that they were two white men wearing business suits who looked like "detectives." The man stated they were driving a bronze colored Ford with D.C. license plates, but she could not recall the license plate number at this time.. She stated the man did furnish this license plate number to her.

She stated that the lights at the IPS building were off when her husband and the MPD arrived at the building.

[redacted] stated that the man who telephonically contacted her had a cultivated sounding voice and she had never heard this voice before. She stated this man seemed to know [redacted]

[redacted] and seemed conversant concerning this incident. [redacted] stated that her home telephone number is listed in the telephone book.

PURPOSE:

To advise of information received from WFO, 11/14/75, showing that former SA Robert Wall at no time was the case Agent for IPS.

BACKGROUND:

House Select Committee on Intelligence (HSC) currently has pending request with this Bureau for all information in Bureau files concerning captioned organization. On 11/14/75, HSC staff member [redacted] telephonically contacted SA Thomas J. McNiff and requested that material being prepared in response to above HSC request should contain a memorandum from former SA Robert Wall to the SAC, WFO, prepared sometime in 9/67, wherein Wall recommended that the investigation of IPS be discontinued in view of lack of subversive information developed.

EX-112

REC-9/100-447935-316
NOV 18 1975

In response to this request, a request was made of Security Supervisor John Palmer, WFO, to determine whether such a memorandum existed. Palmer telephonically advised SA [redacted] on 11/14/75, that upon reviewing the WFO file on IPS, he determined that a memorandum does not exist from Robert Wall, supra, to SAC, WFO, in 9/67, recommending that the case of IPS be closed. Palmer further advised that at no time was the IPS case ever assigned to former Agent Wall. Palmer further advised that a "dead" file was opened on IPS 7/67, however, did not become an active case until 6/68, which would postdate any such closing memorandum alleged by Wall. The IPS case became active 6/68, based on a New York airtel and LHM under the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) caption, wherein a copy was designated for the IPS file and became serial 38 in the WFO file. Information contained in this LHM revealed that [] of IPS contacted [] of the New York SDS Regional Office, 5/68 in regard to a three-day meeting to be held in New York, 5/68. There were instances in 1968 where Wall contacted [] relative to security matters other than IPS, however, during these contacts with the source, information pertaining to IPS was given to Wall, therefore, he designated copies of FD-306s to the IPS file. Regarding the creation of a "dead" file 7/67 on IPS, Palmer advised that this was as a result of information received from Chicago that IPS representatives were present at the National Conference for New Politics (NCNP), 8/29 - 9/4/67, Chicago, Illinois. However, to reiterate the above, active investigation of IPS was not initiated until 6/68. (U)

On 11/14/75, SA McNiff contacted [] and advised her that no such memorandum existed. She stated that she was informed of the existence of such a memorandum during her interview of SA Wall. She continued that Wall stated that the memorandum started out by saying that the investigation of IPS was predicated upon information indicating a possible violation of such and such a statute. SA McNiff advised [] that this Bureau did not adopt the statutory precept for security investigations until 1973 and it is extremely unlikely that any memorandum prepared in 1973 would have contained such a predication. [] thanked SA McNiff for the information and indicated no further action should be taken with regard to this aspect of the HSC request.

REC-89

March 23, 1976

Honorable Larry P. McDonald
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Congressman McDonald:

This is to acknowledge your letter, with attachment, dated March 10, 1976, which advises of a proposal for an on-going group of Americans, Israelis and Palestinians to engage in a series of private discussions on Israel and the Palestinians, American Jews and Arab Americans. Your letter also indicated that the members of this proposed group would include individuals from the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), members of the Palestine Liberation Organization, senators, congressmen and other enumerated individuals.

After reviewing the material which you forwarded, it appears that this proposed series of ongoing discussions is not a violation of any Federal law, and the FBI has no jurisdictional basis for investigation at this time.

As you are aware, we do conduct appropriate investigation where violation of Federal laws are involved, and we are very cognizant of the real threat posed by terrorists. However, we know you understand that we are not at liberty to comment on any details of any ongoing investigation.

You may also be aware that this Bureau is presently the object of a law suit filed by IPS, and we can make no further comment concerning the FBI's investigation of IPS.

We do appreciate your bringing this matter to our attention, and your continued support is greatly valued.

Sincerely yours,

Clarence M. Kelley

NOTE:

Above is in response to a letter to the Director from Representative Larry P. McDonald, Georgia, in which he expressed his concern for a proposed series of ongoing meetings between members of IPS and "the terrorists, anti-Jewish Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO)," which he feels may well affect the internal security of the U.S. Above advises Mr. McDonald that the proposed series of meetings is not in violation of any law, and we have no plans to investigate this matter at this time. This matter has been coordinated with the Legal Counsel Division and Section IS-2, Intelligence Division, which has had an investigative interest in IPS.

RE: Palestine Liberation Organization/
Institute for Policy Studies

Dear Director Kelley:

The attached memorandum, apparently originating from [redacted] of the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), indicates an involvement between IPS and the terrorists, anti-Jewish Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), which may well affect the internal security of our country.

As you will know, the references in the IPS memorandum to [redacted] relate to a [redacted]

[redacted] Others involved with this foundation, are [redacted]

Taking into account the PLO's record of transnational terrorism and noting the FBI's discovery of three PLO car bombs in New York City three years ago, I would appreciate receiving your assurance that this matter will be fully investigated.

I have instructed [redacted] of my staff to work with [redacted] the House Committee on Internal Security, to pursue investigations into this and other IPS activities so that in due course my colleagues in the House of Representatives may be advised about this serious problem. [redacted] will cooperate with your people in any way that may assist them in their investigations. Of course, [redacted] will make available their working papers in this matter.

The following proposal comes from Congressman Henry Waxman, [redacted] and myself. You would be a key figure in it.

Assemble an ongoing group of Americans, Israelis and Palestinians for a private series of discussions on Israel and the Palestinians, Americans Jews and Arab Americans. These people would all be committed, and part of a political public. The purpose of the talks, aside from establishing those relations which develop from personal exposure, would be to begin to articulate alternatives to the public policies, and to spur behind the scenes negotiations for a peaceful and equitable settlement in the Middle East, and for a meaningful dialogue between progressive American Jews and American Arabs.

The people I suggest will indicate further the tenor of the discussions.

[redacted] who would call the meeting, preside and guide discussions.

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS - Senator James Abourezk (D-S. Dak.), Senator Adlai Stevenson, Jr. (D-Ill.); House Members Henry Waxman (D-Cal.) and Toby Moffett (D-Conn.).

MEMBERS OF PLO UN DELEGATION

ISRAELI DOVES

BREIRA REPRESENTATIVE, IPS-TNI PEOPLE, ARAB AMERICANS NOT IN CONGRESS

The meetings could begin soon. Waxman, Abourezk and Moffett have agreed.

[redacted] and I thought it was an important idea, and that you would be the ideal person to bring such a group together.

This memo presupposes that an agenda would be worked out by you and us together before the first meeting.

U. S. HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE (HSC)

PURPOSE:

To recommend that Legal Counsel Division consult with the Department to seek guidance as to the manner in which the Bureau should respond to HSC requests for materials in Bureau files relating to organizations and individuals currently involved in civil litigation with the Bureau, and to ascertain how Bureau personnel should respond to similar inquiries while giving testimony in either Executive or public sessions.

DETAILS:

In September and October, 1975, the HSC requested, among other items, information from Bureau files concerning a number of individuals associated with the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and information from the file on the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS) [REDACTED]

b6

On 11/5/75, Bureau representatives Mr. W. R. Wannall, Mr. R. L. Shackelford, and Mr. D. Ryan furnished depositions to the HSC concerning numerous matters including Bureau investigations of 5 individuals affiliated with the SWP and this Bureau's investigation of the IPS. HSC representatives indicated at that time, that these topics will be the subject of testimony scheduled for public session 11/18/75. With regard to HSC inquiries concerning the 5 SWP individuals, the thrust of the inquiries centered around this Bureau's authority to investigate the SWP and its members, which is one of the main issues to be resolved in a pending civil suit which the SWP has brought against the Bureau. With regard to the IPS, HSC inquiries centered around this Bureau's authority to investigate this organization, as well as public charges made against this Bureau by [REDACTED] It is noted that the IPS is also currently involved in civil litigation with this Bureau charging illegal wiretapping and breaking and entering.

Additionally, on 11/5/75, 2 Bureau Agents, against whom [REDACTED] has levied his unfounded charges, were deposed by HSC members at which time the Agents were accompanied by the Departmental Attorney who is handling this litigation.

OBSERVATIONS:

In view of the pending HSC request for material relating to IPS, as well as information pertaining to [REDACTED] who is to be a principal witness in the IPS civil litigation, and because the HSC representatives have indicated that the questioning of Bureau officials scheduled for the HSC public hearing on 11/18/75 will involve matters directly related to the Government's actions in the defense of the civil suits regarding both the IPS and SWP, it is felt that Departmental advice should be sought prior to this Bureau responding to or engaging in further response to the HSC in these areas.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1) That Legal Counsel Division consult with the Department to obtain advice as to how the Bureau should respond to HSC requests for materials concerning IPS and Merritt, and advise the Intelligence Division by memorandum of the results.

2) Legal Counsel Division should determine from the Department, the parameters to which Bureau representatives should confine their testimony in either Executive or public sessions concerning IPS and SWP and advise the Intelligence Division by memorandum.
